"SBA: The Reawakening of the African Mind is a key. It is a roadmap. It is a call to destiny... with SBA: The Reawakening of the African Mind, Dr. Hilliard .. Helps us to comprehend why education is so critical to African Liberation and advancement. Within his opening thoughts Asa intricately links the mind (spirit), with culture and education. He notes that to reawaken the African mind one must ensure that the goal of education and the socialization process must be to understand and live up to African cultural principles, values and virtues" ..Wade W.
