Historic Reunion

An Appealing Gathering

Veterans of the Atlanta University Center 1960 student civil rights movement gather in front of the Trevor Arnett Library on the CAU campus, Friday afternoon, in a ground-breaking ceremony at a 40th anniversary commemoration program. Former members of the Committee on Appeal for Human Rights -- as they called themselves -- with shovels in hand include (from left) Marion Bennett, Mary Ann Smith Sumrall, Former Student Committee Chairman Lonnie King, Clark Atlanta University President Thomas Cole and James Felder. The dedication shows the Honorable Brenda Cole (background) presiding. It was part of a weekend that included workshops, a second appeal letter and a call for the creation of a commission to address issues which still remain. (Photo By M. Alexis Scott)
