

The regular monthly meeting of the Chautauqua Circle was held at the residence of Mrs. J. B. Greenwood June 16, 1922.

The meeting was opened by prayer lead by Mrs. Pitts.

Minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted. We then engaged in a "heart-to-heart" talk which was very beneficial to the members present.

It was moved by Mrs. Ferguson and seconded by Mrs. Bell that the Circle meet promptly at five o'clock during the months; July, August and September.

Mrs. Johnson was asked to notify Mrs. Harrell about appointing the program committee. Mrs. Harrell had been called to Augusta, Ga. on account of the illness of her sister. We missed her very much.

Mrs. Thomas consented to take Mrs. Ross' place on the August program.

A motion was made and carried that Mrs. Archer's paper, on the "Sketch" of the Circle, which she read at the Anniversary, be placed in the minutes and that Mrs. Porter furnish the Secretary with the minutes of the first meeting of the Circle, that the same might be placed in the minutes.

The Secretary was asked to write a letter to Mrs. Ross for the Circle.

Dues amounting to one dollar and twenty cents ($1.20) were collected.

Quotations on "The West" were given by the members. Mrs. Watson read a poem entitled, "It Takes a Heap o' Livin' in a House to Make it Home", by Edga A. Guest.

We were favored with a vocal duett by Misses Mildred Greenwood and Hennie Moore.

We took a most pleasant trip to California with Mrs. Bell. And many of us really thot that Mrs. Bell had been to California. Her descriptions were good and she was quite at home with her discussion. The pictures of California which were passed at different intervals were enjoyed and they added interest to the trip.

The refreshments served by Mrs. Greenwood were especially palatable.

We adjourned to meet with Mrs. Watson July 21, 1922.

The Chautauqua circle met jointly with the Inquirers at the residence of Mrs. J. B. Watson July 21, 1922.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted.

Dues amounting to one dollar and thirty cents were collected.

A motion was made and carried that Mrs. Ross be made honorary member and that Mrs. Heatherby be re-instated.

It was moved and seconded that we have no meeting in August but meet with Mrs. Lawless in Sept. combining the programs of Aug + Sept. with quotations from the Sept. program.

Many members gave the month in which they preferred entertaining the Circle.

Mrs. Bell, Mrs. Pitts and Mrs. Greenwood were appointed members of the Committee as Chairman of the program Committee of the City Federation.

The business meeting over, we assembled with the Inquirers and began the program by repeating the Lord's prayer lead by Mrs. Harreld.

The members of the Inquirers gave quotations from Sir Walter Scott while the Chautauqua circle gave quotations on Liberty. All the quotations for the afternoon were good.

Mrs. Hynn from the Inquirers had an excellent paper on Georgia poets. She discussed Frank L. Stanton and ladies entertain for at the Anniversary. Dues amounting to $2.10 were collected. The election of officers was next in order.

By acclamation the same officers were re-elected for another year and Mrs. Watson was elected Circle Reporter.

The Pres. appointed Mesdames Thomas, Bell and Greenwood on a committee to revise the Constitution, to be ready for the next meeting.

Quotations on Autumn were given by the Circle and most of the guests gave quotations.

Mesdames Watson and Thomas debated the subject: "Are we prepared to head our Institutions of Learning?"

Mrs. Thomas had the affirmative and Mrs. Watson the negative. The debate was informing and interesting.

The week favored with a vocal solo from Miss Humberly and a violin solo from Master

We were served refreshments and adjourned to meet Oct. 20, 1922 with Mrs. Weatherly.

Mrs. Archer	.20
Mrs. Brown	.20
Total dues	$2.40

Quotations on Happiness were given by Group II, Mrs Johnson and Mrs Brown responding.

Mrs Harrelld's book review on Waterlink's Bluebird was refreshing and interesting. We were acquainted with the writer's life and the story was beautifully told in substance.

Mrs Johnson was requested to sing twice the Slumber Boat.

Mrs Archer gave thro' the story of the Kallikak Family valuable and constructive information on the evils of bad heredity as brought out in the life of little Deborah. Interesting discussions followed.

Many guests were present among whom were Miss Ruffin, National Travelling City Secretary of the Y. W. C. A. and Miss Baytop Executive Secretary of the Charleston, Y. W. C. A.

A delicious luncheon was served by our hostess after which our meeting adjourned.

Mrs. Kemper Harrelld, Pres.
Mrs. Russell Brown,
Acting Secy.

The Chautauqua Circle met at the residence of Mrs. Alfred Lawless Jan 19. 23. The meeting was called to order by the Pres. Mrs. Harold. The members recited in concert the second half.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and with proper corrections, approved. The following paid dues - Mesdames Johnson, 10¢, Harold, 10¢, Lawless, 10¢, Bell 10¢, Greenwood, 10¢, Watson, 10¢, Brown, 10¢, Graves, 30¢, Weatherby, 20¢, Butler 10¢.

The Schollar<sup>ship</sup> Luncheon was discussed, as to how it would be planned. The discussion led to the conclusion that the object of the Luncheon was to raise money for the scholarships. A motion was made and carried that each member be taxed $1.10 to raise the scholarship fund instead of having the Luncheon.

The By-Laws were read and with a few corrections, accepted.

A motion was made and carried that the By-Laws be printed. The pres. appointed Mesdames Greenwood and Watson to look after the same.

The attention of the club members was called, emphatically, to the fact that they had grown careless in notifying the hostess whether they would or would not be present at the meeting as the law requires.

The members were reminded that according to the By-Laws if a member is absent more than three times in succession without a good excuse she forfeits her membership in the club.

Treasurer's report was read and accepted.

Program.

Quotations - Love, by Groupe Three. The Cradle Song played by Mrs. Watson was beautiful. Discussion - Health of Mind & Health of Body, discussed respectively by Mrs. Harold and Mrs. Greenwood brought out many important points on getting a good start in life. Mrs. Graves in speaking on some Local Conditions, mentioned the Free Kinder Garden Assn. & the Needlework Guild, telling how they helped the needy.

Why The Chimes Rang, read by Mrs. Ferguson, captivated the audience.

Mrs. John Hope Pres. of the City Fed. of Women's Clubs was present and told of the work of the Fed. She asked the Chautauqua to Co-operate in the work being done. Quite a few visitors were present: the last of town guest was Mrs. B. J. Harvey of Jersey City. The Chautauqua adjourned.

A splendid hot luncheon was served. The meeting was enjoyable & profitable.
