Dear Brother Jones:

I've selected several of your poems to be reprinted in Modern and Contemporary Afro-American Poetry, ~~is to~~ a new anthology. ~~Since one of my purposes is to reveal the historical vitality and diversity of black poetry,~~ Would you please take a few minutes to date the following:

Poem	Price	Date
------	-------	------

If you will also send me a brief statement on your poetics, a biographical sketch and a short bibliography, it will help me to provide a rather complete, up-to-date overview of what has been happening in black poetry since the Twenties.

~~Looking forward~~

I look forward to your early reply.

Peace and Power,
