General Information

The Interdenominational Theological Center is one of the most significant projects in cooperative theological. education ever undertaken in America. It was chartered in 1958 through the mutual efforts of four schools of theology, representing four denominations. The respective schools are: Gammon Theological Seminary, United Methodist; Morehouse School of Religion, Baptist; Phillips School of Theology, Christian Methodist Episcopal; and Turner Theological Seminary, African Methodist Episcopal. The United Presbyterian Theological Program is the most recent addition to the I.T.C. family. The Center was greatly helped by some magnificent grants from philanthropic foundations, especially the Sealantic Fund and the General Education Board, The I.T.C. has been accredited by the American Association of Theological Schools since 1960.

Faculty members have been chosen both for scholarly competence and for teaching ability. They constitute an outstanding group among the seminaries of the nation. The faculty-student ratio is very favorable, thus insuring individual attention and small classes with opportunity for flexibility in instruction.

The I.T.C. is located on ten and a quarter acres in the heart of the Atlanta University Center. The site is the generous gift of Atlanta University. The buildings and all other facilities are modern, providing every resource for effective instruction and comfortable living.

The Center is under the direction of a thirty member Board of Trustees. Twenty of these trustees come from the four participating schools. The remaining ten are members-at-large chosen without regard to denominational affiliation. The Trustees employ the faculty and administration, set the policies, and manage the physical and financial resources of the Center.

LOCATION

The Center's location in Atlanta offers many advantages. The Black community of Atlanta is one of the most progressive in the nation with abundant commercial establishments, industries, and professional services. The churches of the city with their social service programs, the welfare agencies, hospitals, and penological institutions all provide a laboratory for the student preparing for the Christian ministry. Atlanta is easily accessible by all forms of transportation and is the hub of Georgia's Interstate highway system. Its airport is one of the busiest in the nation. Cultural activities include symphony, opera, and ballet as well as three resident professional theater companies.

COOPERATION

Atlanta is a major educational center. Six institutions of higher learning in the city are federated in the Atlanta University Center: Atlanta University, Clark Cóllege, the I.T.C., Morehouse College, Morris Brown College, and Spelman College. The Atlanta University Center Corporation has greatly increased cooperation between the schools and is providing expanded educational opportunities in which the I.T.C. shares.

I.T.C. maintains close cooperation with Candler School of Theology at Emory University and Columbia Theological Seminary in Decatur. Students in any one of these schools may take courses in the others without extra cost. Arrangements to take courses on this exchange basis must be made with the Dean at I.T.C. The Center's course offerings are enhanced by a cooperative working relationship with the Protestant Radio and Television Center which is located near Emory.

The Southern Christian Leadership Conference has participated in courses at the I.T.C. dealing with the Black Preacher and Society and the Church and the Urban Crisis. These were conducted in cooperation with the Ministers' Leadership Training Program of the S.C.L.C. in which the Black community of Atlanta was used as a laboratory for encountering the needs and potentialities present in contemporary urban society. The Institute of the Black World, a part of the Martin Luther King Jr. Memorial Center, offers some courses which may be approved for credit at the I.T.C. as described elsewhere in this bulletin.

The Georgia Association for Pastoral Care, Inc.

This Association is a joint endeavor of Candler School of Theology and the School of Medicine of Emory University, Columbia Theological Seminary, the Interdenominational Theological Center, and the Greater Atlanta Council of Churches. The purpose of the Association as stated in its charter is to "bring the pastoral concerns of the Christian community for the sick in body and spirit, the distressed, the deprived, and the socially outcast, together with the growing emphasis in theological education on clinical pastoral education."

The Association sponsors clinical pastoral training programs at Grady Memorial Hospital, Georgia Baptist Hospital, Emory University Hospital, and the Milledgeville State Hospital, at both introductory and advanced levels.

Counseling services are administered at each of the participating institutions. At I.T.C. they are available on request to students, their wives, and others in the larger community.

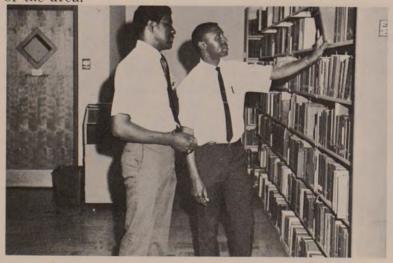

THE LIBRARY

The I.T.C. Library contains nearly sixty thousand volumes. The initial collection was the Gilbert Haven

Page Eight

Memorial Library of Gammon, with contributions from the other schools. Since the formation of the Center, the book collection has been augmented through grants from the following: the General Education Board, the Library Development Program of the American Theological Library Association, and the Kellogg Foundation. There has been a significant gain in the development of the periodicals collection which provides greater opportunity for research in the Black Church and general theological studies. An attempt is being made to acquire all material possible which will complement the material now available on the Black Church. A microfilm center has been started which includes the latest in microfilm equipment. Much of the material on microfilm is from the Schromburg Collection of the New York Public Library. This was made possible through a grant from the Minnesota Mining and Manufacturing Company and the Hill Family Foundation.

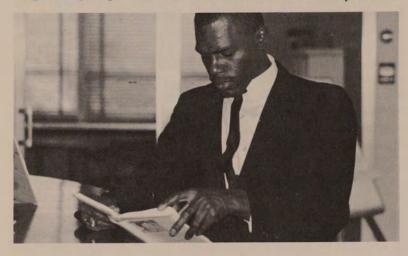

The I.T.C. Library is one of 28 participating members in the Union Library Catalogue of the Atlanta-Athens area. The Catalogue is housed in the Library Building of Emory University. Thus students have access to the finest materials available in the major libraries of the area.

Student Life and Activities

The Center affords abundant facilities for fine fellowship and pleasant living. Rooms are spacious and airy. Dormitories are equipped with modern conveniences. The large campus permits outdoor recreation of many kinds.

The Student Christian League is largely responsible for directing a wide variety of student activities. The denominational groups provide recreation, fellowship, and discussion for smaller groups.

The Student Government Association is responsible for directing a wide variety of student activities. Students are represented on all institutional committees to which they are elected by the student body. Officers of the student body for 1969-70 were:

President Ike Ambrose Hentrel Vice President David R. Dunlap Secretary Rosa S. Jackson Corresponding Secretary ... Vivian McFadden Treasurer William D. Watley Business Manager ... Antonia Lawrence Chaplain Willie J. Christian Coordinator of Interseminary Affairs

Denominational groups provide recreation, fellowship, and discussion for smaller groups. Women students and wives of students share in many social and educational activities under the direction of the I.T.C. Women's Fellowship. Faculty wives also participate in these programs.

CHAPEL WORSHIP

Services of worship are held regularly throughout the school year. They are planned and directed by a joint Faculty-Student Committee. They provide for the deepening and enriching of the devotional life of students and faculty, and for participation in the conduct of public worship.

AWARDS AND HONORS

The following awards and honors are available to qualified students.

The Henry McNeil Turner Memorial Preaching Awards presented annually to the Middler and the Senior who have manifested the most consistent and conscientious study and progress in Homiletics.

INTERSEMINARY PROGRAMS

The Center has a valuable student exchange program with select seminaries. From its inception, students and faculty of I.T.C. have shared in the activities of the Interseminary Movement in the southeastern region. Several times a year joint meetings with Candler School of Theology, Columbia Theological Seminary, and the Cistercian Our Lady of the Holy Spirit Monastery near Conyers, Georgia are held for worship, lectures, discussions, table fellowship, and personal friendships. For several years, Candler, Columbia, I.T.C., and the monastery have conducted a joint interseminary course in the spring. Each school has had one professor and several students participating. Relevant themes such as "The Catholic-Protestant Dialogue" and "The Church and Modern Problems" have been studied.

Through these varied experiences students have everincreasing opportunities to develop a finer understanding of the task and the problems of the Church Universal and deeper insight into their own faith and ministry. Thus they should become better qualified to share the unsearchable riches of the Christian faith with a fearful, needy, and suffering humanity in this age of global revolution and tragedy.

FEES AND EXPENSES Tuition and Fees

STATEMENT OF POLICY

Student expenses at the Interdenominational Theological Center are moderate. Students pay only a portion of the entire cost of their education. All bills are payable at the beginning of each semester and summer session. Partial payment plans are available for charges for students who are unable to pay these expenses in full at registration, provided their application for credit is approved by the Business Manager. It is recommended that all students come with sufficient funds for expenses for the first semester.

Financial Aid

Financial aid in meeting the cost of tuition and other expenses at the Center will be provided for qualified students on the basis of academic average and need. Application should be made to the Director of the respective school or the Financial Aid Officer of the Center.

There are opportunities for work in the city of Atlanta through which a student may supplement his income if necessary.

Housing

UNMARRIED STUDENTS

The charges for a furnished room in a dormitory are: Room for single occupant: $180.00 per academic year. Room for two or more occupants: $135.00 per academic year.

Individuals who wish to reserve accommodations in the dormitories or apartments are required to send a twenty dollar housing deposit. This deposit will be credited to the individual's account when he registers.

If an individual who has had housing accommodations reserved does not register, and does not notify the Business Office before the last day for registration, his deposit will be forfeited.

MARRIED STUDENTS

Efficiency apartments are available for married students who do not have children. The charge for these apartments is $585.00 per school year. This charge includes gas and electricity.

One-bedroom apartments are available for married students who have one or two small children. The charge for these apartments is $540.00 per school year. In addition to this charge, students who occupy these apartments must pay their own gas and electric bills.

The apartments are completely furnished. Students must provide their own linen, dishes, and kitchen utensils.

No storage space is available and students should not bring washing machines, dryers, pianos, or other pieces of furniture.

A family with a baby will need to bring a crib.

Because of the heavy demand for living quarters for married students, applications should be made as far in advance as possible. Assignments will be made in the order in which Applications for Admission are approved, and housing deposits are received.

Board

The charge for board is $405.00 per year.

The dining hall is operated for the convenience of the students. It is expected that all students who live in the dormitory will take their meals in the dining hall.

The dining hall opens on the day that new students arrive and closes after supper on the day following Commencement. The dining hall will be closed during Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter holidays.

Nature, Purpose, and Uniqueness of the Center

NATURE

The Interdenominational Theological Center is a cooperative venture in theological education with commitment to God as revealed in Jesus Christ and to the Christian Church as Christ's Living Body. Sponsored by four denominations to which it has primary responsibility and loyalty, the Center consists presently of four seminaries, namely: Gammon Theological Seminary, United Methodist: Morehouse School of Religion, Baptist; Phillips School of Theology, Christian Methodist Episcopal; and Turner Theological Seminary, African Methodist Episcopal, which share a common educational program. Negotiations are presently underway with the United Presbyterian Church, U.S.A. to locate permanently the Johnson C. Smith Seminary at the Center. Through its interracial and international as well as its interdenominational character, the Center fosters an atmosphere of ecumenical fellowship. The Center is fully accredited by the American Association of Theological Schools, and is actively related to the larger academic community in theological education. In addition, it is an integral part of the Atlanta University Center and participates in programs of higher learning with other institutions in the Atlanta area.

PURPOSE AND OBJECTIVES

Being aware of its commitment, the Center prepares leaders for Christian ministry. Some of the major objectives that the Center seeks to accomplish are:

1. Orientation to the significance of the total program of theological education for ministry:

2. To increase knowledge of the Christian faith and competence in ministry;

- 3. To enhance understanding of the relevance of the Christian faith for ministry in the contemporary world;
- 4. To contribute to understanding of self for ministry from the perspective of the Black experience;
- 5. To promote and support the full, wholesome development of Black manhood and Black womanhood; and
- 6. To become cognizant of the academic worth of the Black experience and the needs of the Black church and community.

SPECIAL RESOLUTION

Recognizing the contribution to the understanding of the Christian gospel that the style of life of Black Christians provides, and in order to foster the development of greater awareness of and appreciation for that Christian style of life, the Center has resolved that at this juncture in its history this is and must be a seminary whose life and curriculum uniquely emphasize the Black religious experience and appreciation for and service to oppressed people. It is expected that this emphasis and the understanding which it seeks will be of value to the whole Church and to the peoples of the world.

Academic Program

GENERAL TERMS OF ADMISSION

The Center is open on equal terms to qualified men and women of every Christian denomination. Persons seeking admission to the Center should apply to the Registrar for an official form of Application for Admission. A $10.00 non-refundable fee must accompany the application. Address: The Registrar, The Interdenominational Theological Center, 671 Beckwith Street, S. W., Atlanta, Georgia 30314.

Each applicant must do the following:

A. Submit evidence of an A.B. or equivalent degree from a recognized college or university.

B. An official transcript of all his college, university, or seminary records showing all courses pursued, the grades received, and the degree earned, must be sent by the issuing institution directly to the Registrar.

C. A certificate from a major official of his denomination (e.g., bishop, president, or registrar of annual conference, presbytery, or association) indicating that the applicant is an acceptable candidate for service in his denomination and that his admission to I.T.C. is approved.

D. A transfer student must present a letter of honorable dismissal and a statement of recommendation from his previous seminary.

E. Each entering student must pass a standard English examination in order to be admitted without condition. Any student found deficient in English will be required to do remedial work and two hours shall be deducted from the total hours permitted each semester until the student shall have passed the examination.

Applicants, even those from accredited colleges, found seriously deficient in pre-seminary studies, may be required to make up such deficiencies in ways designated by the faculty. Courses taken to remove such deficiencies will carry no credit toward the semester hours required for graduation.

F. An applicant, who lacks a few hours of completing his college degree, may be admitted as a special student. He must furnish an official statement from the dean of his college, indicating the specific requirements to be met to qualify for graduation and certifying an approved program for completion of these requirements before the beginning of the next academic year. He may be enrolled in courses here, but total enrollment, including college work, shall not exceed the maximum load for entering Juniors.

REGISTRATION

The academic year includes two semesters of sixteen weeks each. There is also a summer session of six weeks.

The unit of credit is the semester hour. Twelve semester hours are the minimum and 17 the maximum for the regular student. Any student desiring to carry more than 17 hours must have a cumulative average of at least B and must secure special faculty permission. Entering students will be limited to 15 semester hours until they have proved their ability to do satisfactory work.

Registration should be made on the day announced in the calendar. A course may not be entered after the first week except by special permission of the faculty and with the approval of the Dean and the instructor concerned.

Changes in registration must be made with the Registrar within the first week of the semester and after the student has secured the approval of the Dean and the instructors concerned.

Registration in a course is usually for credit, but a student, with the consent of the instructor, may register as an auditor.

Credit cannot be earned in a course unless the student has registered for credit in a regular way.

Withdrawal from a course within the first eight weeks of the semester with the approval of the Dean, the Registrar, and the instructor concerned shall be marked Withdrawn, or W. Withdrawal without the approval of the Dean, Registrar, and instructor shall be marked Withdrawn Unofficially or WU.

ATTENDANCE

Since there is a correlation between class attendance and accomplishing the educational objectives of the Center, students are urged to attend classes for which they are registered.

Regular attendance is expected at chapel.

STANDARDS

At the close of each semester, each instructor reports the grades of each student in his classes to the Registrar.

Grades are awarded as follows: A, Excellent, 90-100; B, Good, 80-89; C, Fair, 70-79; D, Poor, 60-69; F, Complete Failure; I., Incomplete; W., Withdrawn; WF, Withdrawn Failing; WU, Withdrawn Unofficially. Changes in the grading system are being considered.

Quality points are reckoned as follows: A-4; B-3; C-2; D-1; F-0. Grade Point Averages are computed by dividing the total hours for which a student is officially enrolled into the total number of quality points earned each semester.

Not more than 15 semester hours of the total 94 required for the B.D. or 90 for the M. Div. degree or 10 semester hours of the 60 required for the M. R. E., degree may be of D grade. An I may be removed by special arrangement with the instructor concerned. The I must be removed by the mid-semester of the semester when the student is next in residence.

Probation, with load limited to 12 semester hours, is automatic when a student's cumulative average is below C, or may be imposed by the Curriculum Committee when his average for a given semester is below C.

Strict probation, with load limited to 12 semester hours, means that a student must achieve a C average for the following semester and, by the end of two semesters, attain a cumulative average of C in order to continue his enrollment.

Strict probation, suspension, dismissal, or other appropriate status may be imposed by the faculty at any time upon recommendation of the Curriculum Committee.

Christian character is as much a part of a minister's equipment as his ability to preach or his academic training. Graduation from the Center will depend upon character as well as academic excellence. A student may be asked to withdraw from the Center whenever his conduct is unbecoming a candidate for Christian leadership.

Additional Provisions

All requirements for the M. Div. must be completed within five years from the date of first registration. If work has not been completed within this period, a candidate may apply to the Faculty for re-admission. If a student returns after an absence of more than two years, his requirements will be those current when he returns.

A student transferring from another accredited seminary must complete at least his last 30 semester hours at the Center.

Courses in denominational history, polity, and doctrine are required by the constituent denominations. For students in the S. T. M. program such courses are regarded as preliminary.

In order to continue as a candidate for a degree a student who is not enrolled for courses must pay the annual maintaining matriculation fee required by the Center.

Degrees will be granted in absentia only upon formal application and approval by the Faculty in advance except in cases of emergency.

Classification

JUNIOR: Candidates for either the M. Div. or the

M. R. E. degree with fewer than 28 hours and 28 quality points.

MIDDLER: Candidates for the M. Div. degree who have completed 28 semester hours with 28 quality points.

Senior: Candidates for the B.D. or M. Div. degree who have completed 58 semester hours with 58 quality points, including all first-year required courses, and candidates for the M. R. E. degree who have completed 30 semester hours with 30 quality points.

GRADUATE: Candidates for the S.T.M. or S.T.D.

Regular: Students enrolled for 12 or more semester hours.

Part-Time: Students enrolled for fewer than 12 semester hours.

EXCHANGE: Students enrolled at I. T. C. and taking courses elsewhere for credit here and those taking courses here for credit elsewhere.

Special: Those who are enrolled in courses for credit but not candidates for a degree.

AUDITOR: Anyone permitted to attend a course without credit.

A student's classification may change in mid-year. All classification lists must conform to the Registrar's records.

SUMMER SESSION

The Summer Session was inaugurated in 1964 to provide additional opportunities for qualified students to work toward a degree at I.T.C. It is intended for those who are beginning their theological studies, as well as regular students at I.T.C. or other seminaries. The offerings will be varied from summer to summer in order to meet the needs of the students, and enable them eventually to study under most of the regular faculty as well as visiting scholars. Requirements for a degree cannot be met fully in summer sessions alone. Every candidate must expect to spend at least one regular academic year in I.T.C.

SUMMER SESSION, JUNE 8 TO JULY 17, 1970.

For further information, write to Dr. Isaac R. Clark, Director of the Summer Session.

EXTENSION DEPARTMENT

The Interdenominational Theological Center provides an Extension Department of adult education in religion for ministers and laymen who are desirous of improving their competency in church work. Evening classes in biblical, theological, and practical subjects are carried on in a number of cities, for periods of 16 weeks each fall and winter. The Rev. U. Z. McKinnon, Director, provides guidance and secures well-qualified instructors. Classes were conducted during the 1969-70 season in Atlanta, Griffin, and Savannah. Certificates are awarded for the successful completion of each course. The Extension Department also conducts the annual two weeks' Summer School for rural and urban pastors, minister's wives, and laymen, July 27-August 7, 1970.

Plans for future expansion include additional centers for the evening classes, and extension classes in Christian Education for Church School teachers and officers.

For further information write to The Rev. U. Z. McKinnon, 671 Beckwith Street, S. W., Atlanta, Georgia 30314.

Degree Programs

The Center offers three degree programs as follows: Master of Divinity; Master of Religious Education; and the Doctor of Sacred Theology. The Master of Divinity degree program was instituted at the beginning of the school year 1968-1969, and is designed to replace the Bachelor of Divinity as the basic theological degree program. The Doctor of Sacred Theology degree is offered through a joint program of studies with Candler School of Theology, Emory University, and Columbia Theological Seminary.

Students initially entering the Center for the basic theological degree since September 1968 are enrolled in the M. Div. program. Those who as advanced Juniors, Middlers, and Seniors continue in the B.D. program will do so under the conditions and stipulations stated in previous issues of this Bulletin.

Undergraduate Pre-Seminary Studies

Prospective students are urged to secure a well-rounded college education. The American Association of Theological Schools recommends that the student take 90 semester hours or approximately three-fourths of his college work in the following specific areas:

English — literature, composition, speech, and related studies. At least 6 semesters.

History — ancient, modern European, and American. At least 3 semesters.

Philosophy — orientation in history, content, and method. At least 3 semesters.

Natural sciences — preferably physics, chemistry, and biology. At least 2 semesters.

Social Sciences — psychology, sociology, economics, political science, and education. At least 6 semesters, including at least 1 semester of psychology.

Foreign languages — one or more of the following: Latin, Greek, Hebrew, German, French. At least 4 semesters.

Religion — a thorough knowledge of the content of the Bible is indispensable, together with an introduction to the major religious traditions and theological problems in the context of the principal aspects of human culture outlined above. The pre-seminary student may well seek counsel of the seminary of his choice in order most profitably to use the resources. At least 3 semesters.

Of the various possible areas of concentration, where areas of concentration are required, English, philosophy and history are regarded as the most desirable.

A. Master of Divinity

1. Terms of Admission

a. Graduates of accredited liberal arts colleges, whose personal and academic credentials are satisfactory, usually are admitted without conditions.

b. Graduates of non-accredited liberal arts colleges, or of accredited state institutions, such as teachers' colleges, and technical schools, will be considered on the merits of their personal and academic records. Those admitted will be placed on probation until all pre-seminary deficiencies have been made up and prescribed tests and examinations have been satisfactorily passed.

2. Requirements for the Master of Divinity.

a. The minimum requirements for the Master of Divinity degree are 90 semester hours completed with a grade point average not lower than 2, or C. Not more than 15 semester hours may be of D grade. All requirements for the M. Div. must be completed within five years from the date of first registration. If work has not been completed within this period, a candidate may apply to the Faculty for re-admission.

Of the 90 semester hours required for graduation, 50 are distributed among the five fields of the curriculum, and constitute a core. This core must be taken by all candidates for the M. Div. degree. In addition, each student is required to elect an area of concentration among the five fields of the curriculum. A minimum of nine semester hours above the core must be completed in the field chosen.

Courses on the graduate level offered outside of the I.T.C. may be taken for credit in the I.T.C. provided students express interest in them and they are recommended by the several fields and approved by

b. Each candidate must write and present a satisfactory critical essay during the Senior year. The Essay carries two semester credit hours. The student's topic must be approved by his Adviser and the Dean by the first Thursday in November. The first draft of the Essay must be submitted by the student to the Adviser by the first day of the second semester; the final draft by the first Thursday in April. The approved final draft of the Essay must be submitted to the Dean by the Adviser no later than the third Thursday in April.

A Manual for Writers of Term Papers, Theses and Dissertations by Kate L. Turabian is to be used as the official standard for style for all written work.

c. Distribution of Hours

(1) Core Curriculum

The curriculum is organized according to five general fields of study: Bible; Church History; Philosophy and Theology; Church and Society; Ministries of the Church. Core requirements are distributed among the five fields as follows:

Junior Interdepartmental	2
Senior Interdepartmental	2
Bible (Old and New Testament)
Church History	6

Suggested Vocational Interest Groupings
Students may have a particular vocational interest or ministry in mind. They may also need guidance in the selection of electives to their greatest advantage. As a guide to that selection, Vocational Interest Groupings have been established, and suggested courses suitable to each grouping are listed below.
Fourteen hours of courses under a grouping are suggested as a minimum number. The student may desire the help of his adviser in selecting the particular courses most suitable for his vocational interest

The Constituent Seminaries

Gammon Theological Seminary

HISTORICAL STATEMENT

Gammon Theological Seminary was founded in 1883 by the Methodist Episcopal Church. Bishop Gilbert Haven and the officers of the Freedmen's Aid Society had purchased nearly 500 acres of high land in the southern suburbs of Atlanta to which Clark University was moved in 1881.

A department of theology was established in Clark University in 1882, through the efforts of Bishop Henry White Warren, resident Bishop, and the gift of $20,000 for endowment from the Rev. Elijah H. Gammon, a superannuated Methodist minister of the Rock River (Illinois) Conference. The enthusiasm and cooperation of these two men led to the erection of Gammon Hall which was dedicated on December 18, 1883. In June of that year the Rev. Wilbur Patterson Thirkield was elected Dean, and "Gammon School of Theology" was officially opened on October 3, 1883.

Within four years Mr. Gammon offered to give the school more liberal support on condition that it become independent of Clark University so that it might serve the entire Methodist Episcopal Church and all her colleges in the South. In April 1887 the official connections between Gammon and Clark were dissolved, and in January 1888 Mr. Gammon added $200,000 to the endowment fund. The School was granted a charter on March 24, and the name was officially changed to its present name on December 28 of that year. Dr. Thirkield was the first President.

When Mr. Gammon died July 3, 1891, he had willed the Seminary sufficient additional funds to bring his total gift to more than half a million dollars. In his plans, he intended the Seminary to be a central theological school of the Methodist Episcopal Church for the entire South, open to students of all races and all denominations alike. The Seminary has always offered without distinction of race, to all students for the Christian ministry, a thorough, extensive, and well-arranged course of study.

From the very beginning the Seminary has played a vital part in the life and progress of Negroes in America. It has provided leaders of the highest caliber who have served in varied capacities.

A recent survey shows that of the more than one thousand graduates of Gammon:

59 have served as professors in colleges

20 have become college presidents

116 have become district superintendents

24 have become church board secretaries 10 have become editors of church papers

17 have become bishops, 11 in the Methodist Church, 6 in other denominations

Hundreds have become ministers of wide influence, holding leading pulpits in all major denominations. Onefourth of the Conference members in the Central Jurisdiction of the Methodist Church are Gammon men.

Through its participation in the I.T.C. Gammon enters upon a new era of larger service to the Church.

Morehouse School of Religion

HISTORICAL STATEMENT

Morehouse College in Atlanta is an institution for the education of men for constructive leadership and service. It was founded in 1867 by the American Baptist Home Mission Society of New York and was established in Augusta, Ga. as The Augusta Institute. One of the purposes was the preparation of men for the ministry, and the School of Religion of Morehouse College has carried out this responsibility through the years and continues to do so as a part of the new Interdenominational Theological Center.

It was in 1879 that The Augusta Institute was moved to Atlanta and become incorporated as The Atlanta Baptist Seminary. It was housed in a three-story building which it owned on a spot near the present Terminal Station. In 1890 the school was removed to its present location and in 1897 was renamed The Atlanta Baptist College. In 1913 the name Morehouse College was adopted in honor of Dr. Henry L. Morehouse, Corresponding Secretary of the American Baptist Home Mission Society and a constant friend and benefactor of the Negro race.

Among its notable early leaders were The Rev. Joseph T. Roberts, LL.D., who was president from 1871 to 1884; The Rev. Samuel Graves, D.D., President from 1885 to 1890; President George Sale, 1890 to 1906; and President John Hope, 1906 to 1931.

In 1931 President Hope resigned and was succeeded by Dr. Samuel Howard Archer, who had served the College as professor since 1903, and dean since 1920. On March 1, 1937, Dr. Charles D. Hubert, Director of the School of Religion, upon the recommendation of President Archer, was elected Acting President. President Archer, however, did not formally retire from the presidency until October 1, 1938, when he became President Emeritus. Dr. Hubert served as Acting President until July 1, 1940, when Dr. Benjamin Elijah Mays assumed the office of President. Dr. Hugh M. Gloster became President in 1967 at the retirement of Dr. Mays.

Dr. George D. Kelsey was Director of the Morehouse School of Religion from 1944 to 1948. Reverend Lucius M. Tobin was the Acting Director 1948-1949. Dr. Melvin H. Watson served as Director from 1949-1959. The I.T.C. began operation in September 1959.

Atlanta Baptist Seminary was founded as an institution primarily for the training of ministers. From the year 1884 through 1923 certificates were granted to several hundred ministers. The first B.Th. degrees were offered in 1925 and discontinued in 1931; the B.D. program has been offered from 1926 to the present. The principal emphasis has been upon training men for the active pastorate.

The Phillips School of Theology HISTORICAL STATEMENT

The importance the founding fathers attached to the education of men for the ministry of the Christian Methodist Episcopal Church may be seen in the following statement from the first Episcopal Message of the Bishops to the 1873 session of the General Conference of the C.M.E. Church: "Next to the maintenance of sound doctrine and godly discipline (and it will be tributary to these), the most vital point is the education of our people, and especially the improvement of our ministry."

In less than a decade after this message was delivered, Lane College at Jackson, Tennessee, and Paine College at Augusta, Georgia, were established with the training of ministers as their primary purpose. The study of the Bible and the preparation and delivery of sermons constituted a major part of the curriculum. In later years the work at Lane and Paine was organized into Departments of Theology and degrees issued therefrom.

In May of 1944, the Board of Trustees of Lane College passed a resolution in which it recommended the establishment of a separate seminary at Lane College. The recommendation was referred to the Annual Conferences concerned. In the fall of 1944 Lane College's supporting annual conferences approved the establishment of a seminary and elected trustees of the proposed institution.

The Seminary began operation under the name of Phillips School of Theology at Lane College with the winter quarter of 1944-45, offering the Bachelor of Divinity Degree on the graduate level and the Bachelor of Theology for undergraduate students. The 1946 General Conference of the C.M.E. Church gave the Seminary connectional status.

The Phillips School of Theology, and its antecedents, the Departments of Theology at Lane College and Paine College have given to the Christian ministry many educated and consecrated men and women. Many of them have been and are now serving in some of the outstanding pulpits and in other important positions in the C.M.E. Church and in our sister denominations.

PURPOSE OF PHILLIPS SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

1. The school's primary purpose and task is that of training men and women for the Christian Ministry in the Christian Methodist Episcopal Church and other communions.

2. To inspire, inform, and prepare the Christian leader for those services which are his as a religious leader.

3. To help provide the Christian Methodist Episcopal Church with an adequate supply of able and dedicated leaders who wil give a Christian interpretation to the whole of life in an ever-changing world.

Beginning with the 1959-60 school term, Phillips School of Theology has operated as one of the four seminaries constituting the Interdenominational Theological Center in Atlanta, Georgia. The academic work, chapel services, the library, the dining room, dormitories for married students and some other features of the Center are conducted by a central faculty and administration.

The diploma states that the degree is awarded by The Interdenominational Theological Center in cooperation with Phillips School of Theology and contains signatures of representatives of the Center and the Phillips School of Theology.

Members of the Christian Methodist Episcopal Church desiring to enter Phillips School of Theology should apply to the Reverend M. L. Darnell, Director, Phillips School of Theology, Atlanta, Georgia. He will process the application with the Interdenominational

Center, and make provision for living quarters.

The College of Bishops and the General Board of Christian Education jointly administer a ministerial scholarship fund. The amount of the scholarships will vary according to the needs of the applicant. Applications for scholarships should be made to the Director of Phillips School of Theology and the General Secretary, Board of Christian Education, 1474 Humber Street, Memphis, Tennessee 38106.

Turner Theological Seminary HISTORICAL STATEMENT

The founders of Morris Brown College believed that to educate the people and leave the pulpit ignorant would be detrimental to the church and the race and therefore they proposed to have an educated ministry. As early as September 23, 1885, just before the doors of Morris Brown were opened for the reception of students, the Rev. T. G. Stewart, D.D., was elected Dean of Theology.

But it was not until 1894 that a Theological Department was formally opened with Dr. E. W. Lee as the dean. Twelve young men matriculated the first day and in three months twenty-four had enrolled. Among those who served as deans and professors during the next few years were: The Rev. J. S. Flipper, D.D., The Rev. W. G. Alexander, The Rev. M. M. Ponton, A.M., The Rev. J. D. Bibb, A.M., The Rev. J. A. Brockett, D.D., and The Rev. Felix Rice Sims.

On June 19, 1900 the Executive Board, by unanimous vote, changed the name from the Theological Department of Morris Brown University to Turner Theological Seminary in honor of Bishop H. M. Turner who had been influential in the development of the school from the beginning. Others who have been deans since 1900 are: The Rev. P. W. Greatheart, D.D., in 1913, The Rev. J. A. Lindsay, D.D., in 1920, The Rev. W. G. Alexander again in 1922, The Rev. George A. Singleton in 1928, The Rev. Samuel Hopkins Giles in 1929, and The Rev. Charles Leander Hill in 1933.

The. Rev. Frank Cunningham, Ph.D., was elected Dean in 1945 and served until 1954. In that year the Rev. Edward J. Odom, Jr., was elected and served until 1957.

In the Fall of 1957 Turner Theological Seminary moved into its own building apart from the College where it has maintained lecture and conference rooms, offices, library and a student lounge. In 1957 the Rev. George A. Sewell, Ph.D., was elected Dean, and when the I.T.C. was opened, served as Director until 1961. The Rev. Josephus R. Coan, Ph.D., served as Acting Director until 1968. The Rev. George L. Champion was elected Director in 1968 and the Rev. Cecil W. Cone in 1969.
