Hi Hunt,

Hope this finds you well and thriving as ever. I won't offer any of the gamut of "Nigger excuses" for not having written before now. And quite typically, I'm writing now for a favor. (smile) I do apologize, however, for not having written. (smile)

Don't get Black World here on the Newstands, so I'm out of touch since my subscription expired. All my money has been soaked up in some legal bullshit, so I haven't felt free enough to rcp up the subscription.

If you would send me some back copies for Jan, Feb + Mar, + April, would be grateful. The solvency situation should get better soon.

I'm in school at Northeastern State College in Tahlequah, Oklahoma. (since Jan '74) doing a major in English Education and Journalism. Should be out in '78 with my ~~dean~~ masters. (Yeah, it is late, isn't it..(smile))

I'm staying for you folks in CBAC. I heard about Plan To Planet, but I've been reluctant to write and put the beg on Dan for a copy. If you'd do it for me, I'd appreciate it.

Tell everybody hello, jambo, As-Salaam-Alaikum and Kini N'Kan for me. Hope to be in the city around late August. (Mother lives there) Hope I can see you then.

My poetry is still limping awkwardly along. My prose is rejuvenating itself, how ever, so maybe it'll all jell eventually.

Have had a few hard times since I saw you, but I'm being blessed rather strongly now. Just suffering from good black stuff to read. The college library's "New Book" is Nikki's Gemini and Amistad 2. So you see the shape I'm in (smile) Bookstores are as bad. If not worse. But my memories have sustained me up to now - but I'm fading fast. So if you can get those few precious, badly needed items to me.

Love
