December 5, 1963

Dear Friend:

The tragic events of the past few days have brought us together in our grief, and have, I am sure, intensified our commitment to the principles of our late President.

The pledge of President Johnson "to continue" came as no surprise to us who were at the White House and we have an obligation to intensify our efforts in order to support our new President in his awesome assumption of responsibility.

Therefore, could you set aside January 13, 1964, for a meeting of the Steering Committee to discuss our future activities. We will meet in Mrs. Peterson's office, Room 3110, of the Department of Labor at 1:00 p.m., and we expect to work through the afternoon.

Further details and an agenda will be sent to you before the meeting.

We look forward to seeing you.

Sincerely yours,

Douglas Horton
Mrs. Douglas Horton
