

NE. #138

David T. Howard High School
551 Houston Street

Commercial Style, red brick Built 1922

Notes: 3 story, red brick, symmetrical, commercial style building, located on the south side of Houston between Howell and Randolph. Rectangular towers, corbelling, variation of color. Standard bond used with brick; brick bond along cornice edge.

Site part of Sweet Auburn Historical District. Service realty - one of many companies founded by Hemer Perry as part of his service group. Howard High began as an elementary school when black Atlantans had no public high school.

NE. #139

550 A Houston Street
Original owner - W.H. Bedenfield?

Style Victorian frame Cottage - c. 1880

Fac. Mat. - Wood and asphalt composition siding in brick pattern.

None approach - outbindings.

Attractions - yes; facade + treatment; possible window - door changes.

Structure - good condition

Grounds - good condition

High - Fair

Notes: Across from Howard High School; one story Victorian frame cottage with 5 bay low-slope shed roof porch across facade with right 3 - bays projecting along with 2-bay wide portion of roof oriented to street as pedimented gable. Gable has small lowered attic vent, and both are heavily framed in a classically inspired molding. Porch sports 7 columns and is of the East Lake style with solid panels replacing traditionally on Balustrade. Split column pilasters attach porch to site part of the Sweet Auburn Historical District.

Additional Comments - Main entrance to house aligned on axis with center porch bay. Window splits first two porch bays on left and what is now a door splits last two bays on right, house is raised $\frac{1}{2}$ story on masonry foundation, has concrete approach steps at center, and is roofed with a two tab hexagon asphalt composition shingle.

Owned in early 20's by Dr. Moses A Mos - founder of first black owned pharmacy - the Gate City Drugstore.

NE. #140

206 Randolph Street

Style Victorian

Fac. Mat. - Wood weatherboard

Out building - none approach

Condition - structure - good

 grounds - fair

 neighborhood - fair

Notes: Hipped roof with projecting gable and attic louver; dormer with colored glass inserts; 5 bay East Lake style porch; wood weather boarding. Twined post on porch.

Site of the Sweet Auburn Historical District.

City Directory does not list in 1898, but thereafter list L.P. Latimer in 1916, Willie A. Bremelt in 1927

NE. #136 A and 136 B - same information

528 Irwin at Harwell Street

Style - Victorian 'shot-gun' cottages

Facade Mat. - Wood weather board

Outbldgs. - None

Plan - 'Shot-Gun'

Alterations - unknown

Condition - structure - good

 ground - fair

 neighborhood - fair

Notes: One-story victorian shot-gun cottage typically oriented with gable end to street, shed roof - porch (added ?) rests on simple metal pipe posts. Front facade has one 4/4 window on axis with center line of house and door to right. Gable possesses almost square louvered attic vent and boxed cornice and eave returns. Roof is 2-tab octagonal asphalt composition shingles and is broken at mid-point along ridge line by square brick chimney. Right side of house has one window near rear set in simple white painted wood frame.

Site part of the Sweet Auburn Historical District.

Additional comments - House raised 24" (approximately) on masonry foundation.

NE. #118

383 Irwin Street

2 story frame: 1 story porch on columns, across 1st story; smaller gabled porch above central section under dormer windows in roof.