DEDICATION

Clark College is honored to pay tribute to Bishop John Wesley Edward Bowen, Jr., in the dedication of the 1960 Yearbook, in grateful recognition of his outstanding leadership in The Methodist Church and his untiring efforts in the advancement of Christian education.

His interest in Clark College stems from elementary school days to the present. Indeed, two of the most memorable events in his illustrious career occurred in our College chapel—his elevation to the Episcopacy in 1948, and his receiving in 1959 the degree Doctor of Letters (Litt. D.). Particularly noteworthy is the excellent administrative ability that he has shown over the years as President of the Clark College Board of Trustees.

Bishop Bowen is a native of Baltimore, a graduate of Wesleyan University, of Harvard University and of Gammon Theological Seminary. His career has been highlighted by excellent service as a college teacher, as an editor of the Central Christian Advocate, as a pastor, as a district superintendent, and as an episcopal leader. More than just giving his exceptional talent and ability, he has brought to our College a "not holier than thou attitude," but an indomitable heart, sincerity and friendliness. He is down to earth, approachable, and steadfast in his relationship with faculty and students.

Bishop John Wesley Edward Bowen

In this year of retirement from the Episcopacy, the Panther Staff and the entire Clark College family testify their regard for a genial friend whose discerning judgment, genuine advice, and sincere interest have helped all who have been associated with him. Long may he and his charming wife, Mrs. Margaret Davis Bowen, whom we hold in highest esteem, live and dwell among us.

Bishop Bowen was elevated to the Episcopacy in Clark's Davage Auditorium in 1948. Here he is being congratulated by Dr. Brawley while Charles W. Caldwell (left) and Virgil W. Hodges join in the greeting.

Bishop Bowen presided over many Trustee meetings

In recognition of his long and devoted service to the Church, to education and to mankind, Bishop Bowen was awarded the Doctor of Letters Degree at the 90th Anniversary Founders' Day ceremony in Davage Auditorium. Others receiving degrees on the occasion were Dr. M. L. Harris, Mrs. Ruthella Rodeheaver and Dr. Goodrich White.

World travelers, Bishop and Mrs. Bowen point out some facts about souvenirs brought back from Africa at one of their many visits to the campus, this time it was on the occasion of Clark's 91st Founders' Day Celebration. They have visited many foreign nations.

President of the College

With the close of the 1959-60 school year, Dr. James P. Brawley completed his thirty-fifth year of service to this institution.

Beginning his formal association with Clark in 1925, Dr. Brawley became its Dean the following year and its President in 1941.

The nineteen years of his administration have been the most eventful and fruitful in the history of the institution, and under his leadership the future for Clark College is indeed bright, with plans for exciting developments already underway or on the drawing board.

Juniors Set the Pace As Clark Students Top UNCF Campaign Goal

Dr. Hale opens the 1960 campaign.

Clark students went over the top in their 1960 United Negro College Fund Campaign in March by raising $1,995.84—nearly a thousand dollars over the goal set by Campaign Director Dr. William H. Hale and his committee, of which Dr. Wiley S. Bolden was co-chairman.

With classes competing for the honor of electing Clark's "Miss UNCF," the Juniors reported $493.86 for a per-capita gift of $4.41. This enabled them to select their classmate, Rosa Jean Robinson, for the title.

Mr. John Hall led the top sub-group, with Mrs. Gladys Cothran's group running a close second. Nurse Chandler and Mr. James J. Green again took laurels for their role as advisors of the winning class.

Rosa Jean Robinson won the title "Miss UNCF" because of her classmates' fine job in contributing to the campaign.

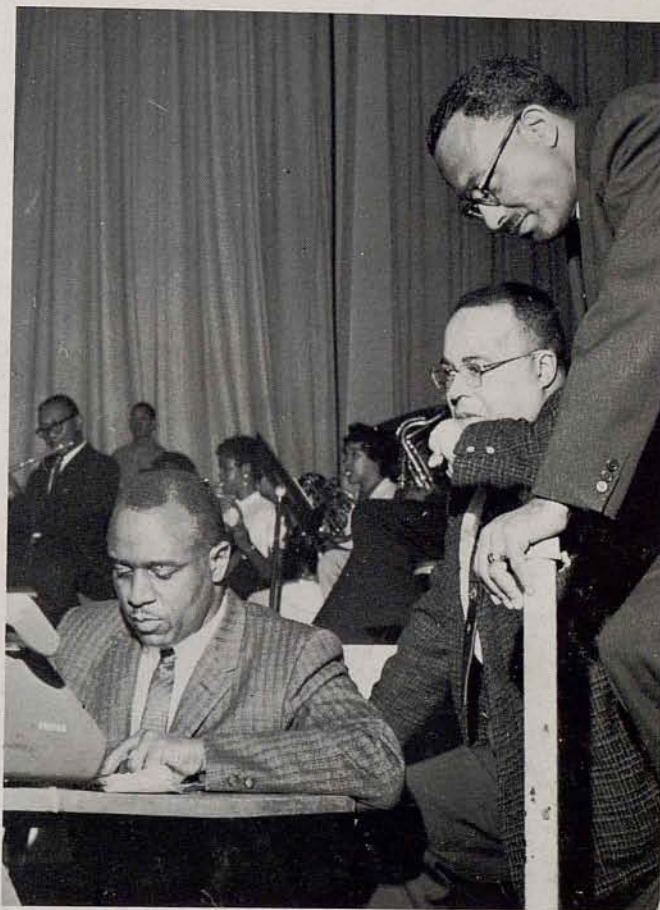

Christine Sparks helped to point up what UNCF has done for its member colleges since 1944, in a chapel program early in the drive.

For its pioneering work in the area of student education on the work of UNCF, Clark was presented a trophy by the National Council of UNCF Alumni at its February meeting in Detroit.

Dr. Hale presents the UNCF trophy to Dr. Brawley in a chapel program.

At the final roll call, Mr. Harris tabulates reports while Mr. Jeter and Dr. Hale wait for the report showing the campaign's results.

Sorors of Alpha Pi Chapter, Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority

Alpha Kappa Alpha

Since May 21, 1930, when Alpha Pi Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority was first organized on the campus of Clark University, members of the chapter have caught and held vision of true sisterhood. Members of the chapter have been leaders in promoting scholarship, high ethical and cultural standards, womanhood, unity and friendship among women. Omniscious of Alpha Kappa Alpha's standards and goals, they have attained heights and won honors which have made them an asset to AKA, to society and to Clark.

Under the capable leadership of Basileus Alfreda Bradley and advisorship of Soror Fannie B. Whipple, Alpha Pi's activities for the year included the annual rush party for the newly inducted Clarkites. The theme for this year's occasion was "Greenwich Village." Thanksgiving could never pass without the members of Alpha Pi giving their "Sock Hop" to obtain food for needy families. Contributions were given to the Community Chest and U.N.C.F. drive, to the Speech and Hearing Clinic for entertainment for the children, a halloween party was given. A reception after the Coronation was given honoring all queens.

Founders Day exercises were held during the month of February. Activities included the Annual Chapel Program, awarding of scholarship; and a year's subscription to the periodical "The American Scholar" was presented to Clark's Library director. The services concluded with dinner together with all the Sorors. This year's recipients were Soror Betty P. Williams and Linda White, a freshman of Chicago, Ill.

AKA's feel certain that the real spirit of Alpha Kappa Alpha is shown by their deeds. We take pride in the accomplishments of individual Sorors. Lydia Tucker, Betty P. Williams, Alfreda Bradely were elected to "Who's Who Among College Students in American Colleges and Universities," holding positions in organizations are Zeline Basemore, Vice-President of Holmes Hall and President of the Y.W.C.A., Lydia Tucker, Secretary of the S.G.A., Daisy Harris, Asst. Dormitory Directress, Merner Hall, Discussion Leader for Leadership Conference.

AKA's are found leading and participating in every phase of college life. Kate Autrey, Personal Attendant to "Miss Clark," Holmes Hall Lady of the month; Joyce Rankin, "Miss Loyalty"; Doris and Dorothy Thomas, "Miss Alpha Phi Alpha"; and Juliette Amey, "Miss Philharmonic."

The path of the "Burning Sands" found along its hallowed route the footprints of Jacquelin Brown, Eleanor Brayboy, Rosetta Daniels, Nancy Banks, Loretta Fowlkes, Rosaline Geddis, Bessie Hicks, Mable Hilliary, Mary Hills, Canary Chapman, Christine Sparks, and Jean Walker.

Alpha Pi Chapter is striving to win even greater laurels, to retain her status as one of the leading undergraduate chapters of the Sorority and to bring glory and honor to Alpha Kappa Alpha and to Clark College.

Delta Sigma Theta

Sigma Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority

"Intelligence is the Touch of Wisdom"

"Success" is the label given to all of the projects undertaken by the members of Sigma Chapter of the Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc., for the year of 1959-60. Under the fruitful leadership of Miss Joyce Ross, the president for this year, the members of the sorority have shared in a year of profitable activities.

The Delta's calendar of events consists of a variety of projects. Some of these are civic projects, community projects, campus projects, and goals set by the members of the sorority.

Across the burning sands into Greekland by way of Delta, fifteen lovely young ladies made their debut in the month of December, 1959. These neophytes were Helen Allen, Mattie Jo Arnold, Shirley Banks, Mattie Barkley, Mattie L. Brown, Shirley Brown, Harriett Bryant, Brenda Cooper, Dorothy Davis, Brenda Howard, Johnnie Lay, Carolyn Long, Queen Neal, Theresa Ann Ware, and Rebecca Brown. During that time three active pyramids were inducted who were Misses Barbara Aguirre, Naomi Smith and Jo Ann Taylor.

Four Sorors made "Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities." They were Misses Lois Banks, Johnnie Dave, Joyce Ross, and Ruby Hamilton.

Other members include Henrietta Askew, Mattie M. Brown, Ann Bryson, Billie Ann Daniel and Kathryn Reed.

Sorors of Psi Chapter of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority

Zeta Phi Beta

Psi Chapter of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc., are on deck for another year of constructive service. The path of the "Burning Sands" found along its hallowed route the footprints of Johnnie Upshaw.

In keeping with our observance of Founders Day, Psi Chapter paused in January to pay tribute to the founding of our sorority by presenting a chapel program. The founders are Sorors Arozonna Cleaver, Myrtle Tyler, Viola Tyler, Fannie Pettie, and Pearl Neal. Assisting brothers were Brother Charles S. Taylor and Brother A. Langston Taylor.

Psi Chapter is striving to win every laurel, to retain her status as one of the leading undergraduate chapters of the sorority and to bring glory and honor to Zeta Phi Beta and Clark College. The officers of Psi Chapter are as follows:

Basileus, Mary Gavins; Brammateus, Bernice Johnson; Dean of Pledges, Louis Lee; Tamias, Rachel Collins; Antapokritis, Regina Jenkins; Representatives to Pan-Hellenic Council, Bernice Johnson and Louis Lee; Advisor, Soror Grace W. Phillips.

Alpha Phi Alpha

There is an act of Providence in the commencement and perpetuation of any movement of permanence and mobility. God through his prescience, loving care and intervention guided the Seven Jewels at Cornell University in Ithaca, New York, in 1906, when they were founding Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc. Prolifically the number has mutated from seven to twenty-six thousand plus, who indefatigably promote manly deeds, scholarship, and brotherly love for all mankind. Due to the same providence an indisputably potent link was annexed to the chain of Alphadom with the purveyance of Alpha Phi Chapter at Clark University on January 28, 1927. The founders Brothers James P. Brawley, M. S. Davage, and E. Luther Brooks, are held in our memories as erously in the building and maintenance of Alpha Phi Chapter and Clark College.

Under theistical guidance again the chapter's officers arbited a performance of magnanimity. These officers are the honorable Jerry Hardee, president and representative to the Pan-Hellenic Council; Fred Foster, vice-president and assistant dean of pledges; Willie Steward, recording secretary; Joe Carter, treasurer; William B. McClain, corresponding secretary and representative to the Pan-Hellenic Council; MacAuthor Florance, financial secretary; James Brenton, parliamentarian; James Crawford, historian; Randell Ponder, Chaplain; Frank Wiley, Sergeant-at-arms; Bobby Watkins, dean of pledges; and Ray Prince, editor. Unfalterable guidance and non-abrogable services were rendered by Bros. John Harris and Solomon Sears, faculty advisors. For the second year Doris and Dorothy Thomas reigned as Misses Alpha Phi Alpha.

The year's activities commenced with our annual "Smoker" at Holmes Hall, then we joined our AKA sisters, and with them the true house of Alpha was established in miniature.

We celebrated Founders Day on December 4 and presented the school a portrait of our late honorable brother, E. Luther Brooks, one of our founders, who was a professor in the Chemistry Department for twenty-one years.

We have such men among the twenty-four Alpha Phi Brothers who adhere to being first of all, servants of all, and transcendents of all in the indefatigable pursuit for proficiency in socio-civic relationships. Joe Carter is president of the Brawley Hall Senate, vice president of the Business Forum, captain of the football team and is a member of Who's Who.

William McClain is assistant vice president elect to the Southern Region of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc.; he is a member of Who's Who for the second time. Ray Prince is making his debut as president of the Senior class and representative to the Student Government Association. Randal Ponder is president of the Clark College division of the N.A.A.C.P. Willie Steward is serving in the capacity of vice president of the Junior class and representative to the S.G.A. William T. Robinson is doing an excellent service as president of the campus organization of the Music Educators National Conference. Clarence Ford is president of the Business Forum and the Cavaliers '21. Jerry Hardee, in his fourth year of track, is captain of the track team. Willie Lynch is president of the Sophomore class and representative to the S.G.A. The five first stringers of the basketball team are Alphas: Joe Carter, Bobby Watkins, Henry Clark, Jerome Jenkins and Randell Ponder are all members of the Clark College "c" club.

Eight additional Bros. were initiated into Alpha during the Fall probation. They are John Hankerson, James Harrison, Jerome Jenkins, Andrew Lloyd, Willie Lynch, Julius Warthen, Levi Gray and Jimmy Williams.

This chapter has been distinguished and honored by the recent election of our own Dr. William Hale to the presidency of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc. This marks the first time a college campus has been honored with the national presidency in many years.

Officers of Alpha Phi Alpha (l-r), Jerry Hardee, President; Fred Foster, Vice-President; Willie Stewart, Recording Secretary, and Bobby Watkins, Dean of Pledges.

Brothers of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity

Omega Psi Phi

To the members of Beta Psi, Omega is the foster mother who encircles us with her strong benevolent arms and smothers us with understanding of the quintessence of brotherhood. Her horizons are "Ad Infinitum"—unlimited, and her bonds cannot be severed. Towards her we are forever drawn by an unseen indescribable, and sometimes ineffable spirit of longing and belonging.

Many are aspiring and many will continue to cross Omega's "Burning Sands," but it's a rough road and it stretches broad and far over the horizon, but it leads at last to a golden city where golden homes are found. Where men "take time to rejoice with brothers of choice"—the men of Omega Psi Phi.

It is with words like these that the members of Beta Psi move forward in this era. Having the distinction of being the first greek letter fraternity to be established on Clark's campus, Beta Psi has down through the years produced great men. The school year 1959-1960 was no different. It was in this year that one of its loyal sons was elected to a national office in the fraternity. Bro. James Felder was elected to the office of second vice-grand basileus. This distinction is one that all Beta Psians the world over should be proud of. Bro.

Felder also holds the distinction of being president of the S.G.A. He was also one of the original endorsers of the controversial "Appeal for Human Rights."

There are also other brothers that are outstanding in the college community. They include David McCants, a member of Beta Kappa Chi Scientific Society, in which he holds the position of president. Alton Williams is a member of Cavaliers Collegiate—21 and business manager of the S.G.A. Robert Williams is a student assistant to the registrar; George Williams is a member of the mathematics club. Richard Fisher is a member of the Clark College Band where he holds one of the top offices. Norris Farmer is one of our very loyal members.

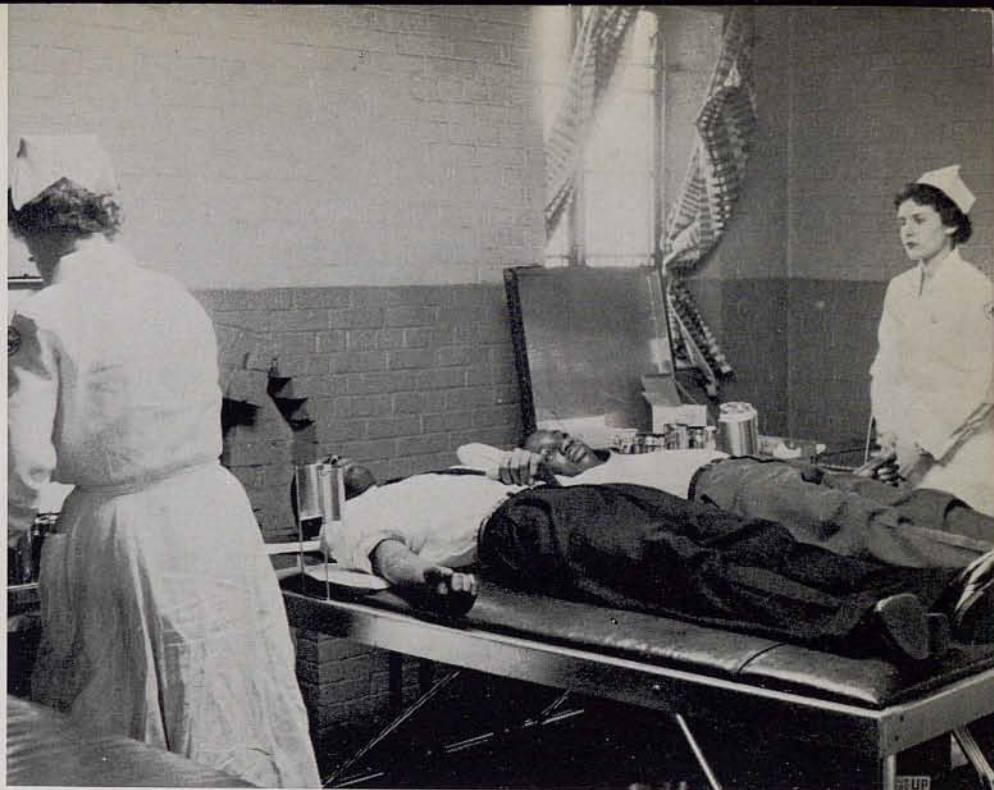

THOSE WHO REMAIN

The underlas fraters remaining will include Bros. George Adams, Roland Blanding, Elijah Butler, James Felder, Wesley Memeger, Daniel Mitchell, Charles Nevett, Johnny Scott, Julius Sims, Lovell Twyman and Rufus Werts.

Among projects initiated this year were the annual blood-bank in conjunction with the American Red Cross, Queen of the Month, support of U.N.C.F. and support of the Student Movement.

Earlier this year Bro. Gregory Newton, Grand Basileus of the fraternity, was a guest speaker at the invitation of this chapter. Bro. Newton delivered an inspiring and challenging message to the Clark College family.

On February 6, 1960, Miss Brenda Pippins, a freshman from Atlanta, was crowned Queen of the Mardi Gras at the annual graduate chapter dance which was held at the Magnolia Ballroom. Miss Pippins was the representative from this chapter. The affair was really something to remember, as will be readily witnessed by all those that attended.

The 1959 Clark Col

In 1928 a Clark College football team romped through the season with only one defeat. It took thirty-one years for another Clark squad to duplicate that season—or at least come pretty close to duplicating it. For while the 1928 squad lost one and tied one, the 1959 squad ended the season with two ties and one defeat.

Perhaps the biggest reason for not going undefeated this year was the lack of experience. Like too many Clark teams of recent years, the Panthers this year found themselves distressingly short on know-how plus experience. Twenty-seven men on Coach Epps' thirty-nine-man squad were freshmen.

The season was filled with thrills from start to finish. Such ingredients as converting a fumble into a touchdown, snaring a deflected pass for another touchdown, tying a ball game on the final play, scoring on the first play from scrimmage, made the season certainly the most interesting one seen by this generation of Clarkites.

Success this year was, as Coach Epps put it, "a result of team effort and a strong desire to win." It goes without saying, however, that there was a lot of talent on the '59 squad, and much of it—most of it—will be back when the season opens next fall, since only four players will graduate this June.

Departing will be Arthur Clay, Becton Donaldson, Arthur Williams and Arthur Carter, all of whom have worn the Cardinal and Black colors well during their four years with the Panthers.

College Panthers

The season opened with the Panthers at Orangeburg, South Carolina, to play Claflin for the first time in recent years. Following came a contest against Fort Valley. Victories in both these games brought forth considerable comment, as did the 6-6 tie with Tuskegee (then unbeaten).

The subsequent tie with Alabama State set the Panthers back somewhat but the fact that the team came from behind to tie the score on the final play of the game kept the living room quarterbacks talking.

In the next game the Panthers registered a 16-14 win over then-unbeaten Morehouse and set themselves up as "the team to beat." A week later the Clarkites had to come from behind again in New Orleans to outscore Xavier at homecoming for a 32-28 victory.

Coming to grips with Savannah State next in a non-conference tilt, the high-flying Panthers piled up their greatest margin of victory in a 28-12 win over the Tigers.

The season's sole setback came on Thanksgiving before a record crowd in Herndon Stadium. The fast-charging Wolverines piled up a 25-0 lead at halftime and went on to earn a 38-0 win that was not as easily gained as the score might indicate.

The highlight of this game for the Panthers was a first-quarter goal-line stand which saw the Panther line hold for four downs with the ball resting only inches from their goal line.

Blocking practice was the highlight of many practice sessions, especially early in the season when muscles had to be toughened for the punishment they would have to take—and give—later.

Clark Panthers Win Over Claflin

The Clark College Cardinal and Black Panthers combined their aerial and ground attacks to come from behind and win over Claflin College, 18-6 in Orangeburg, South Carolina.

Superb running on the part of fullback Arthur "Flat top" Williams in the first and third periods enable the Panthers to conclude the contest victoriously. However, Clark demonstrated their dangerous pass attack in the second quarter for the winning touchdown.

Ronald Jones, junior and signal caller, called upon freshman end Robert Barksdale to display his receiving talent to bring the second quarter pay-off pitch.

Eppsman Edge Wildcats 15-14 In League Opener

Staging a defensive wall to protect their slim lead in the waning moments of the contest, the Panthers of Clark College strongly absorbed the fighting period of Fort Valley State winning the Textile City Classic by a 15-14 count at Griffin Memorial Stadium, Griffin, Ga.

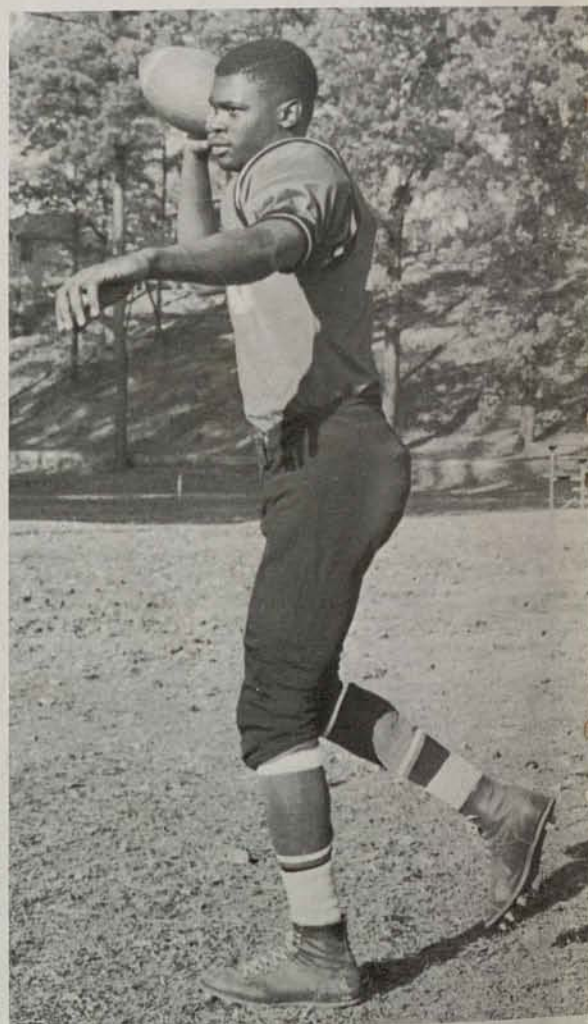

It was the first time Clark had won a conference opening game since they beat the Wildcats last in 1955. Each season these two teams meet first in the conference and the record indicates the Wildcats winning in 1956, in 1957, 19-6; 1958, 6-2 before Clark found revenge 15-14 this season.

Clark's first touchdown started as a pass play with the quarterback Ronald Jones throwing to Robert "Bob" McFadden. The pass deflected into the air at the ten yard line by a Fort Valley defender, sailed back up field where Johnny-on-the-spot Arthur Carter took it from the air and ran for a touchdown. Clark led 8-0, after a Jones to Carter extra-point pass.

The Panthers cashed in their second score on a play which started at the ten yard line, but actually covered thirty-five yards. Quarterback Jones handed off to Spearman, who was hit and separated from the ball behind the line of scrimmage.

The ball bounced back to the thirty-five yard line before Raymond Hughes scooped it up, got a key block from Jimmy Hurt and went all the way for the touchdown. Jones' kick sailed through the uprights for the extra point, giving Clark a commanding 15-0 lead.

Fort Valley came storming back in the fourth period to make a difficult situation. The Wildcats scored on a one yard plunge by their fullback and tallied the two point conversion. Clark's lead was shortened to seven points 15-8.

Desperately making a comeback, Fort Valley made their final pass with four minutes remaining. Curtis Crockett, Arthur Carter and Albert Spearman were the outstanding heroes of the contest.

Clark Falls Before Morris Brown 38-0

Thanksgiving Day was quite gloomy for the Panthers, absorbing their first and only loss of the season at the hands of Morris Brown's 38-0 scoring surge.

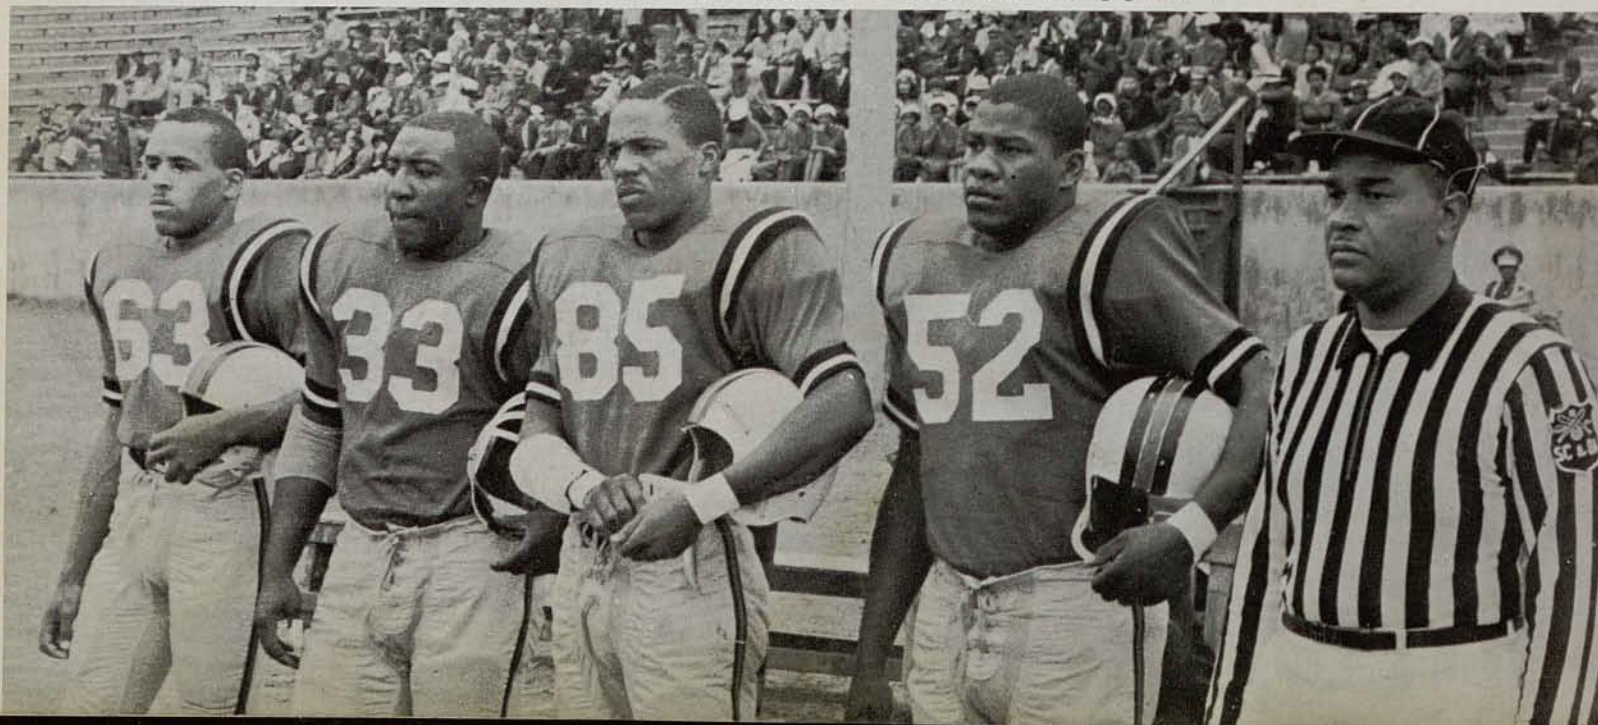

Morris Brown mastered the contest after the first three minutes of the opening quarter had passed. It was on the part of Charles Bivins electrifying 75 yard sprint that closed the doors in the Panthers face.

Clark found it difficult to stop the running game, well maneuvered passing attack of the Wolverines. Clark however, penetrated deeply into Morris Brown's territory several times, but could not find the right combination to ignite a scoring spark.

This was the first and only loss of the season for the Panthers who have found it hard to conquer a victory over the Wolverines in ten years.

Clark concluded the season with a 5-1-2 record.

Panthers Shock Maroon - Tigers By 16-14 Count

Clark nosed out Morehouse 16-14 by igniting two explosive touchdowns in the opening minutes of play to win an exciting mud-splattered contest at Herdon Stadium.

Morehouse rallied back for two scores in the second and third quarters but could not match the Panthers in point production by the extra-point route.

The Panthers defensive squad was the turning point of the contest. Morehouse attempts to conclude victorious were foiled at the 9, 11, 20 and 23 yard lines.

SCORING

Clark: (1) Ray Hughes, 57-yard run. Extra point, Ronald Jones to Robert Barksdale. (2) Arthur Williams, one yard plunge. Ronald Jones to Robert Barksdale for 2 extra points.

Morehouse: (1) Clinton Ransaw, 4 yard run. Extra point; Jennings Coleman to Alonzo Crutch. (2) Taft McCoy, 5 yards out. Total 14 points.

Panthers Tie Hornets on Final Play

With his team trailing 26 to 28 and only seconds remaining in the game, Panther quarterback Ronald Jones, standing at about the Alabama State 35-yard-line, let go with an unerring pass into the waiting arms of half-back Raymond Hughes who stepped across the goal line on a play actually completed after the final whistle. The try for a two-point conversion failed.

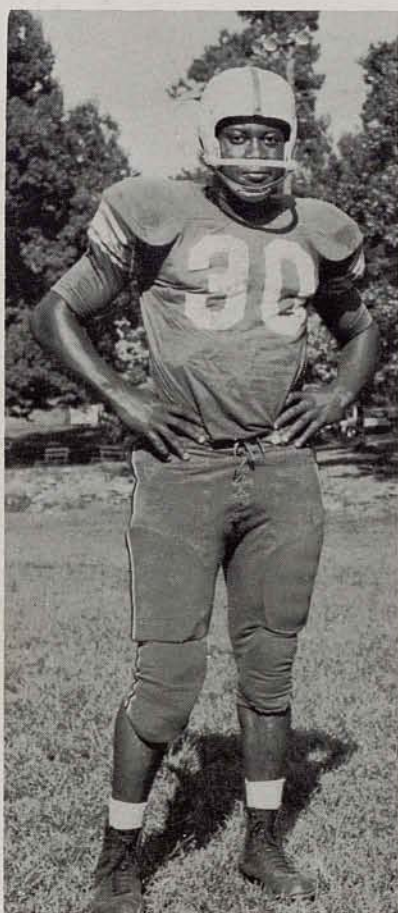

That was one of Hughes' two touchdowns in this game. Fullback Arthur Williams also scored twice and carried for one conversion.

Panthers, Golden Tigers Battle To 6-6 Deadlock

Playing mainly a defensive game, the Clark College Panthers and Tuskegee Institute Golden Tigers battled to a 6-6 deadlock, in the only night home game of the Panthers season.

Both Tuskegee and Clark used the aerial route to score, but found that the going was rough for the all-important extra point.

Johnny Scott picks up yardage

Clark scored first in the game with 57 seconds remaining in the first half of play. Following the recovered fumble by Jimmy Hurt at the twenty-seven yard line, ace-quarterback Ronald Jones threw the pay-off pitch to end Capt. Arthur Carter from Fairfield, Ala.

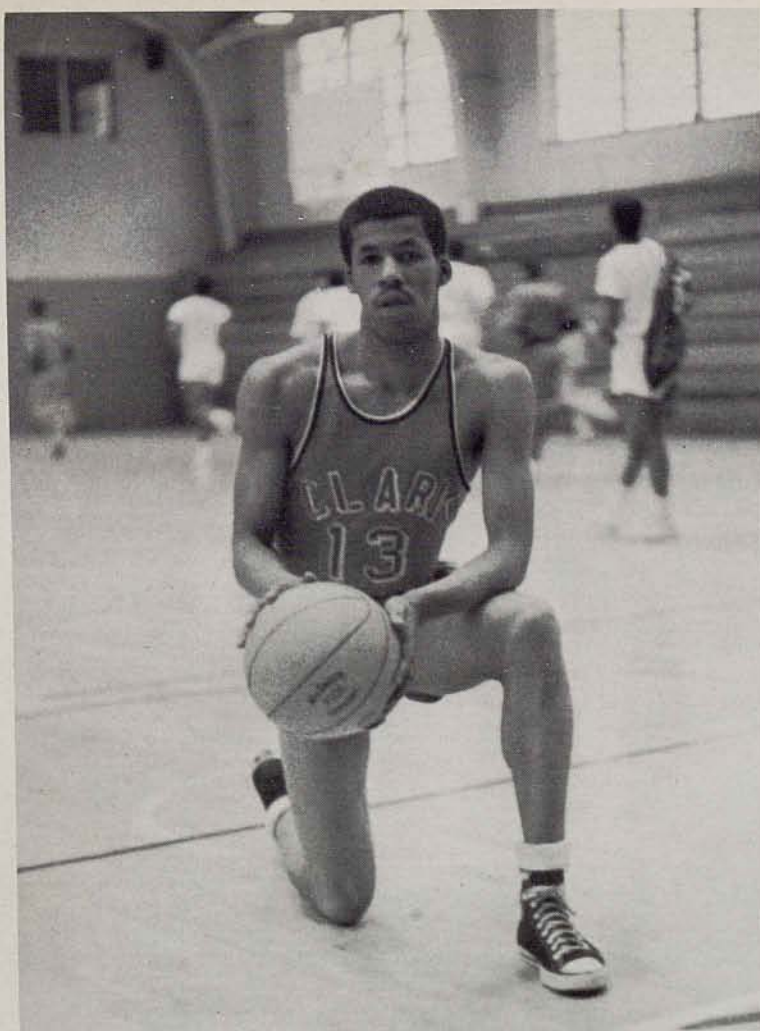

Tuskegee opened the second half of play striking hard, and soon found themselves right back into the contest after a sixty-seven yard march. Using both their running attack as well as passes, Quarterback Willie Williams called upon Charles McGhee and Samuel Simmons to set up the attack. Then Williams stepped into action, firing passes to teammates Freddy Holland and Robert Duckworth.

With the ball resting on the fourteen yard line, Williams hit Holland in the end zone for the touchdown, making it a 6-6 contest.

From this point on, the contest was left entirely into the possession of both defensive squads and time.

Panthers Hurt This Year By Height, Experience Shortages

With the personnel problems of football extending into basketball, Coach Epps found himself having to floor one—sometimes two or three—freshmen in every game this season. Hard-pressed also for height, the Clarkites found themselves in the rather unusual situation of being in or near the Conference cellar until about mid-way of the season when the squad began to jell as newcomers came around to fit into things with the benefit of a few games' experience.

Losing basketball games was a somewhat new experience for the team this year. Clark squads have figured in virtually every visitation race and tournament since 1951. In that year the team brought home a tournament third place from Tuskegee and the next year went through a seventeen-game win streak to win the visitation championship. Since that time our basketball teams have added at least five trophies to the College's collection.

THE PANTHERS AND THEIR COACHES

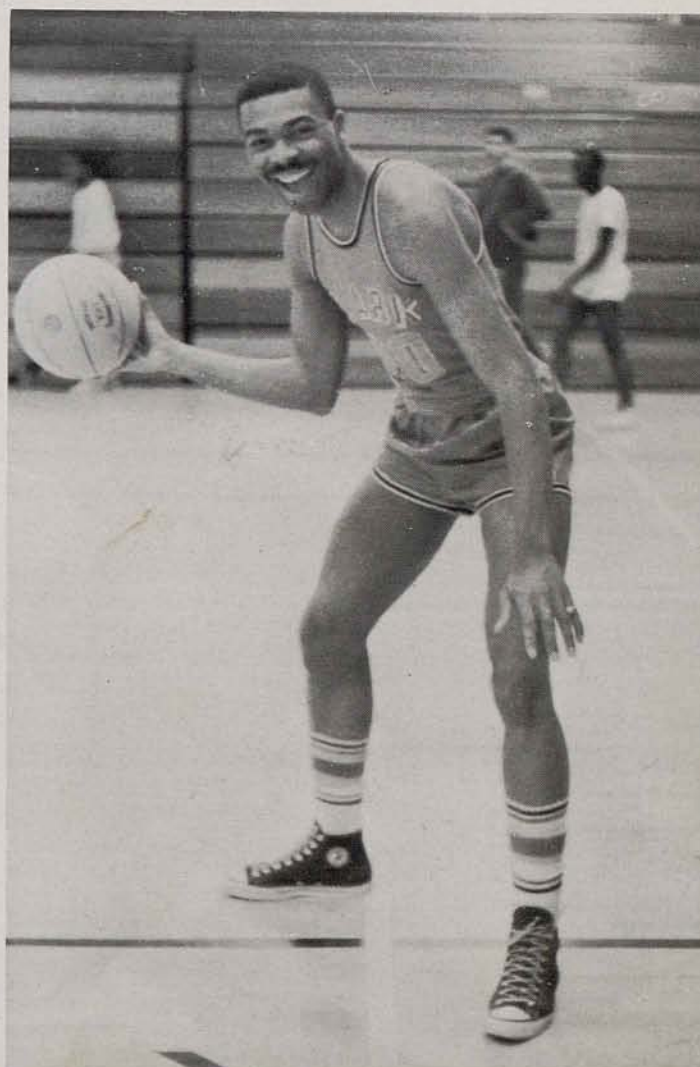

In a blur of fast-moving action, Henry Clark goes in for a shot

Because the Panthers have been known for surprising finishes after poor seasons, optimism ran high when they won a bid to the SIAC tournament on the strength of a late surge. Hopes were short-lived, however, as the Clarkites fell in the opening game.

Setting the stage for what is to follow, "Barbara Allen," played by Brenda Pippins, sings "The Legend of Barbara Allen."

At a valley square dance Barbara meets and falls in love with "John," the witchboy, played by Jesse McDade.

While "Ma Allen" (Kate Autrey) says "Taint no diffrunce," "Pa Allen" argues that "Hit jes aint right fer nobody to marry somebody what aint got no las name."

Playing witches, Betty Pearl Williams and Doris Heard warn "witchboy" that his love for Barbara Allen will meet ill fate.

Mrs. Metcalf (Waddelle Thomas) buys calico from Mr. Summey (Stacy Jones) to make a dress for Barbara's wedding.

At the general store, Ivan Hakeem, Jimmy Williams, Randy Butler and Eugene Clark discuss the coming marriage.

Witchboy cannot enter a church, so the wedding takes place in the store.

In the revival scene, Barbara pleads that her husband "ain't no witch."

Preacher Haggler (Robert Felder) whoops it up in the revival scene that is to set the stage for the tragic ending.

Dear Ben,

I cannot express my great happiness over your development this school year. You are indeed one to be admired. Please keep up the good work and always remember that "we are not here to play, or to drift" for there is work to do and loads to lift. Work, don't shun it for it is God's gift. Much success, to you always Mr. Civil Rights. Really, although we may not always show it, we appreciate your every effort.

Be ever wonderful.
