THE 1964 REFLECTIONS

Yvonne Woodard—Editor-in-chief Mr. J. Q. Caruthers—Advisor

Emphasis at Spelman is placed on one's attitude toward life as well as the mere acquisition of knowledge. The total growth of the individual is of the utmost concern.

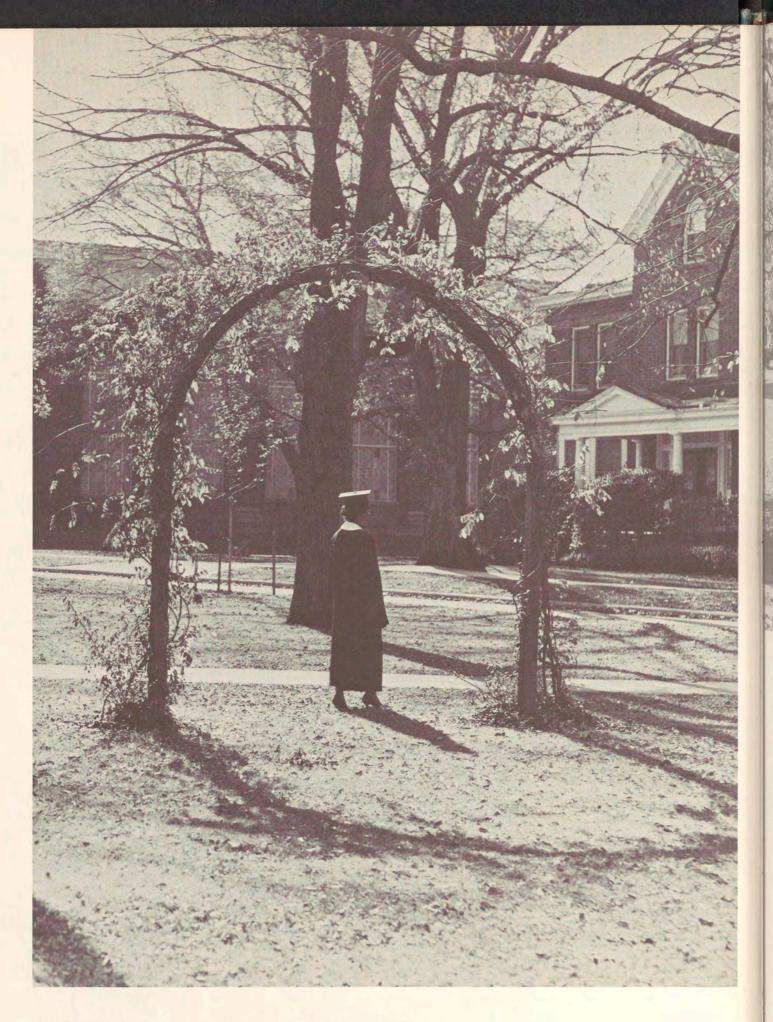

Development of the mind and personality coupled with the development of one's spiritual resource occupy top priority.

In a sense, all work here has been directed not to an end but to a beginning. Indeed, the four years spent here—assimilating and formulating—were only the backdrop against which the real drama of our lives is now to be played. In reality, we finish only to begin. The years spent here are like clay which may be molded according to our desires. The finished product is ours to choose. We are the creators.

Properly speaking then, our college days may terminate but our search for knowledge, truth, and beauty will continue as long as life lasts.

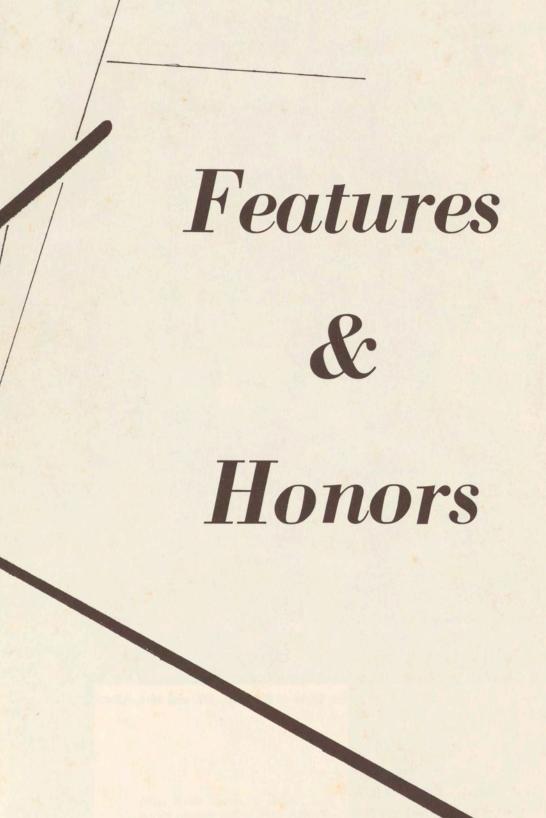

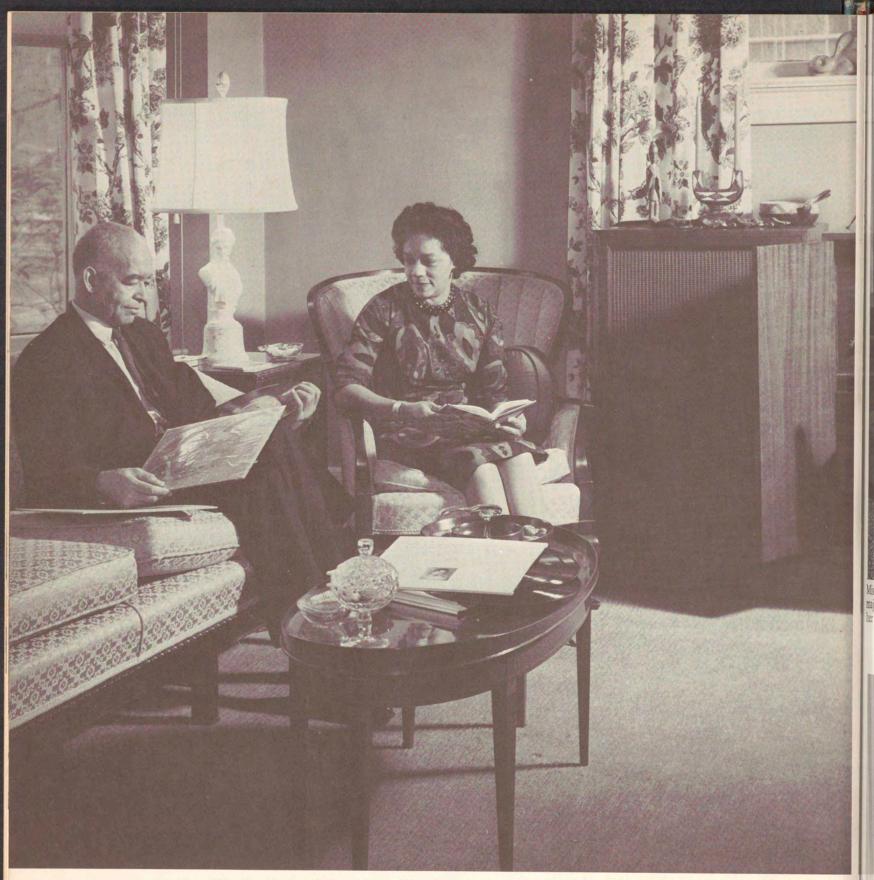

Dedication

We, the Staff of the 1964 Reflections and the Senior Class of 1964, proudly dedicate this edition of the yearbook to our parents. Throughout the years of our formal educational experience you have been to us sources of inspiration, guidance, counseling, understanding and love. Your job has been a tedious one indeed.

We know that this small gesture can in no way repay you for the many trials and sacrifices you have made in furthering our eduction. Thus, as we go forth in the world we plan to go as the symbols of all for which you have labored. In this manner, we hope to continue to express our never ending appreciation for your untiring efforts and devotions.

The President and First Lady of Spelman: Dr. and Mrs. Albert E. Manley.

Miss Josephine Dunbar from Waycross, Georgia, is a senior who is majoring in mathematics. The place Miss Dunbar has chosen to do her studying is Besançon, France.

Merrill Scholars

Miss Leronia Stokes is a senior from Norfolk, Virginia, who is majoring in political science. Miss Stokes is planning to study in Geneva, Switzerland.

Not pictured is Miss Marilyn Holt who is presently spending her junior year on exchange at Wellesley College in Massachusetts. A mathematics major from Atlanta, Georgia, Miss Holt is planning to study in Dijon, France.

Miss Alice Walker declined the Merrill Scholarship in order to matriculate at Sarah Lawrence College.

> Miss Ruth Davis, a junior, is a social science major from Atlanta, Georgia. Miss Davis has chosen Dijon, France as the place to do her studying.

Who's Who

Selection of Who's Who is a mark of national distinction. The organization is designed to inspire great effort and to reward outstanding activity and achievement. Students selected to Who's Who from Spelman are: Seated— Ida Rose McCree, Aurelia Brazeal; Standing — Joyce Hawthorne, Alice Walker, Betty Stevens, Beverly Whatley, Josephine Dunbar, Annease Chaney, Judy Tillman. Not pictured are Nelda King, Margaret Hampton, Damaris Allen and Marilyn Holt.

Elizabeth Leigh-Sierra Leone

This year our foreign students come from all over the globe—Africa, Norway, and Cuba. As active members of the Spelman student body they are working hard in their fields of endeavor in order that they may share the benefits with their communities upon their return home.

Dr. Albert E. Manley

The fifth president of Spelman College brought and is bringing to the office of president the interest needed to see his task through, the friendliness needed to get along with all people, and the sincerity needed to command the respect of faculty and students alike. Dr. Manley has a national and local image, an image that all Spelman students will remember.

Upon the request of the Reflections Staff, the Committee on Admissions, Appeals and Scholarship chose fourteen students to represent the Senior Class.

These students were selected on the basis of character, scholarship, and service to the college community.

For four long and difficult years these young ladies maintained academic averages, held offices in organizations and participated in various extra-curricula activities. Thus, they are the chosen Outstanding Seniors.

In Memoriam

Dear are the memories of our college days which cling to our hearts. Some are gay, frolicking happy moments, some somber, lachrymose, even apprehensive of we know not what. Some memories are even of tragedies.

The class of 1964 pauses to remember one of her departed sisters, Artie Camille Allen of Winston-Salem, North Carolina. Snatched from life in an untimely accident, Artie was a vital part of our total being. To us, she represented the very personification of the ultimate in happiness.

Her friendliness and cheerful disposition will long be remembered by those of us who were privileged to know her. The alacritous Artie, a potential student of dramatics, lives on in each of us.

Therefore, we, the class of 1964, pay tribute to one who though physically separated from us is never really more than a thought away.

Thanksgiving Rally

The Seniors with a unique scheme in addition to completeness won an award for these features too.

Following close behind the seniors are their "Little Sisters," the sophomore class, winning their share of awards.

The Seniors, taking top prizes at the rally, won the "Miss Capricorn" title.

The Sunday School with the most complete selection won an award, also.

The Day Students made their presence known with an overstuffed Pilgrim that won an award.

The work of a genius?

"They'll never take you away from me; never, never, never!!!"

"Did you hear about the robbery in the treasurer's office?"

Are you sure that she should be in college?

Big things come in small packages.

"After all Josephine, someone else will take it if you won't."

Smile, kids, you're on "Candid Camera"??

The Rockefellers leaving Rockefeller Hall.

Fashions from Vogue???

"Millie, I must know, how do you keep your skin so young looking?"

Bowling + Morehouse Men=Hmm . . .

"Can you believe it? We're practicing to teach school?"

"I'm sure that's my mother in the back row! I think!!"

"I'm practicing for a commercial!!!"

Don't pay any attention to how she looks. She doesn't have . . . t . . b??

"I'm going to get a Beatle haircut, Te-he-he!!"

"Now ladies . . ."

"I may be too idealistic but . . . "

Three charming ladies attending a tea???

What y'all drinking???

Trick or treat for the kids at the Spelman Nursery.

"Did you hear from your fellow today too?"

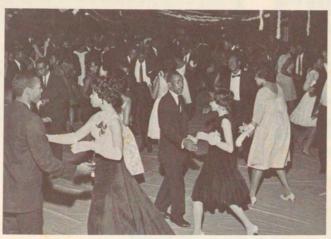

"Hey gang, I'm the greatest !!!"

They are celebrating Barbara's great achievement she is now a member of the Klu Klux Klan.

We see you Gloria-how can we help it?

Aren't you glad you use dial soàp. Don't you wish everybody did?

Our First Lady is presented with an orchid.

"Who took my Excedrin?"

Two are better than one.

Giles, our majestic old building.

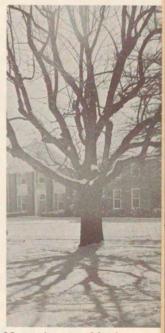

Where will the young lady get her lessons?

Is that really coffee, Mr. Bullard?

Nature's own blanket.

Mrs. Chivers knows that she wasn't surprised.

Now we know why the Spelman girls don't cut Physics.

"I've walked over here from Spelman five times today and every class I try to get in is closed."

"Grace, charm, beauty . . . I possess all of these things."

Now Bev, you know calling hours are over.

"No, I'm not Sandra Burton ... I could pass for her twin you say?"

Yes, Clayton, we find you to be one in a million.

The party is over. It's time to go-to bed that is.

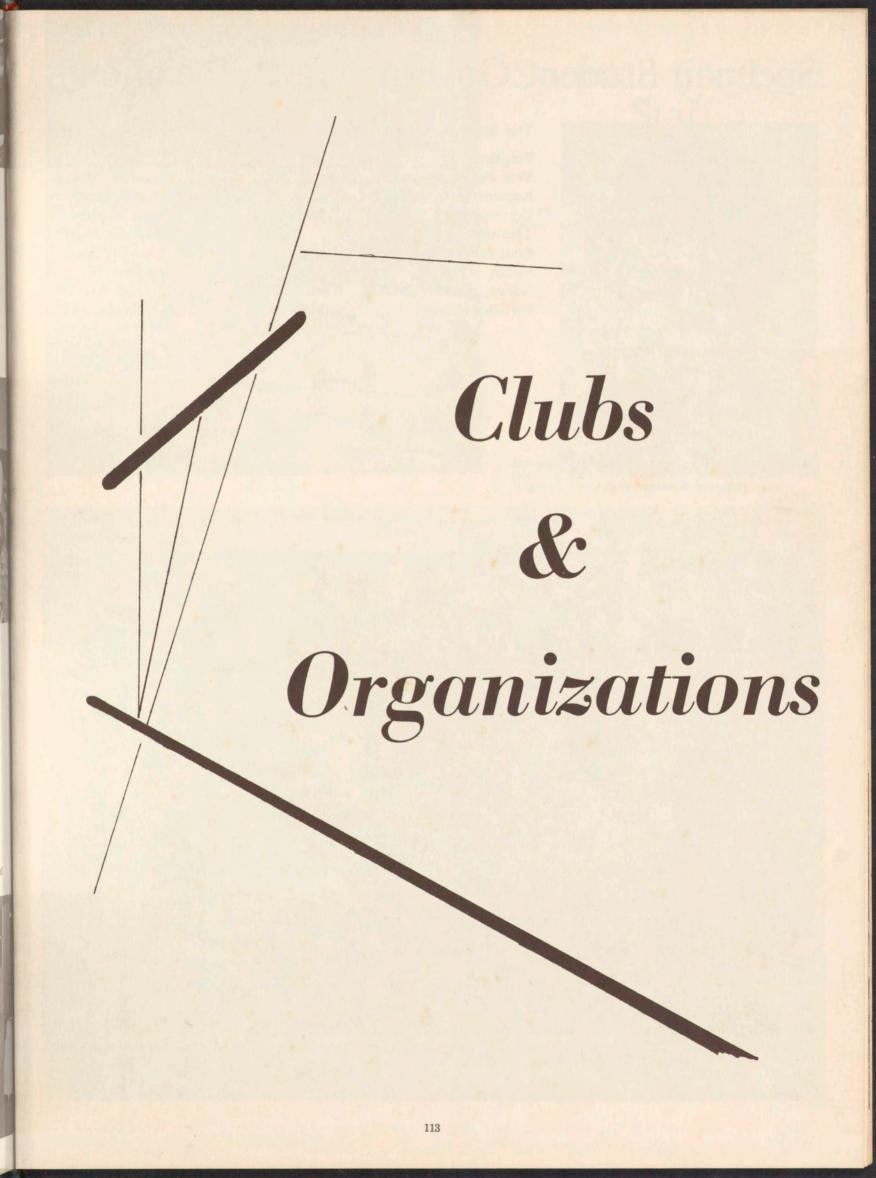

Miss America of 19-uh!!!

It couldn't possibly be that bad.

The 1964 Reflections Staff

The Reflections for 1964 is meant to be more than a passive attempt to represent pictorially the activities of another academic year. Through scenes and narrations the students are realistically shown attempting to solve problems and reach solutions through social and intellectual activities.

AMS Players On Tour

Aren't they a very dramatic group?

AMS Players are given a big send off by Dr. Manley.

Miss C. Crawford looks lost, doesn't she?

Surely Brenda you are not going to hitchhike to Europe from McGuire Air Force Base?

rankfurt is an attractive city to Nelda ıd Carmen.

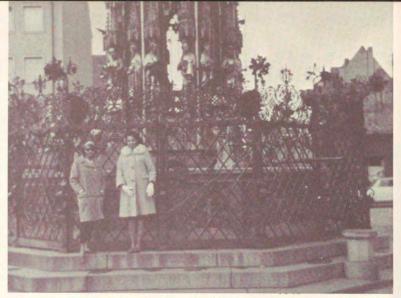

Judith sees something interesting from Charlotte seems to be enjoying Frank-her window in the Army Billets in Nu- furt, Germany. remberg, Germany.

Judith seems fascinated with the decor of a restaurant in Nancy, France.

Charlotte and Judith adorning the beautiful fountain in front of a church in the Market Place in Nuremberg.

Members of the cast posing with friends in Regenberg, Germany.

Charlotte enjoys the coast of La Rochelle, France.

Ah, France. Here the cast sits down for its first French meal in Nancy, France.

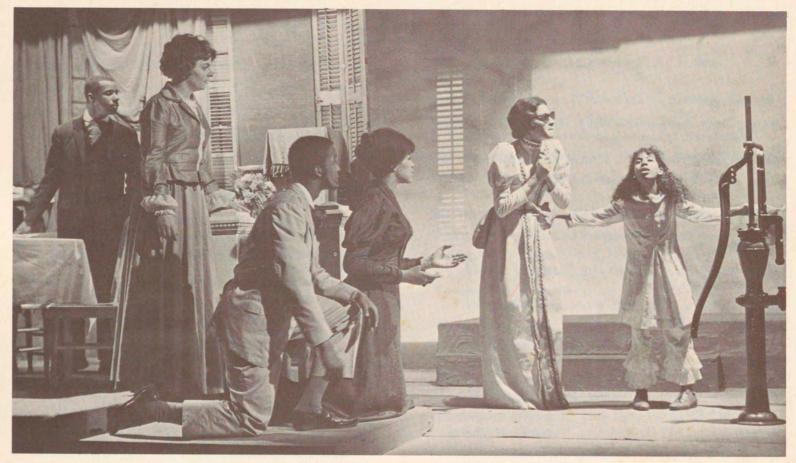

Marcelite and Michael having fun at Soldiers' Field in Nuremberg.
